From
Mr. P.C. Raju Mudaliar,
General Secretary, The Non-Gazetted Government Officers' Association, Madras.

To
The Secretary to Government, Education & Public Health, Madras.

Sir,
I am directed to submit for the kind consideration of Government the following resolution passed at the 23rd Provincial Conference of the Non-Gazetted Services held at Guntur on the 6th August 1944.

"Resolved to request Government of Madras that in view of the importance now given to handicrafts in Elementary Schools, Manual Training Instructors with Secondary Grade Training qualification be made eligible for promotion to the cadre of Junior Deputy Inspectors by issuing the necessary and suitable amendments to the Special Rules issued for the Madras Educational subordinate Services".

In Rule 2(a) of the Special rules for the Madras Educational Subordinate Services, Class I Category 3, Junior Deputy Inspectors of schools, Men Branch, provision is made for the promotion of Secondary Grade Teachers as Junior Deputy Inspectors. There are some manual training instructors working in Government institutions and trained in Manual Training under the old scheme with secondary grade training qualification which was then prescribed, as a qualification necessary for undergoing Manual Training under the old scheme. But these secondary grade trained teachers, with additional qualification in Manual training are ineligible for promotion as Junior Deputy Inspectors under the existing rules, probably because they are not actually working as Secondary Grade Teachers. In fact, some such inspectors are handling general subjects also, and as such some of them are offered Assistant Examiner-ships for Public Examinations.

It is well known that nowadays considerable importance is attached to Handicrafts especially in elementary schools. Of course, it may not be possible to give training to all the inspecting officers now, but, the services of the Manual Training Instructors, who are otherwise qualified for the post of Junior Deputy Inspectors by having obtained a T.T.C. of the Secondary Grade may with advantage be utilised by providing them with a chance for promotion as Junior Deputy Inspectors.

Further, almost all such Manual Training Instructors are drawing salaries ranging from Rs.50/- to Rs.72/- including the special pay allowed to them for the additional qualifications they held, while the Junior Deputy Inspectors' scale is almost the same. So, if these Manual Training Instructors are appointed as Junior Deputy Inspectors, there can be no additional expenditure to the Government but on the other hand, the Manual Training Instructors posted in their places in the event of their promotion will be given the lower revised scales of pay i.e. Rs. 30 - 55 and hence a clear saving can be shown to Government.

Under these circumstances, it is absolutely necessary in all fairness and equity that necessary amendments be made to Rule 2 (a) of the Madras Educational Subordinate Services, Class I Category 3, by adding "and also Manual Training Instructors with Secondary Grade Training qualification" after "Secondary Grade Teachers" with a view to giving a chance for such Manual Training Instructors also to secure promotion for Junior Deputy Inspectors' posts.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant.

From the D.P.G., R.C. No. 3211 C/44 d. 11.11.44

It has been suggested that instead of treating the whole lot of Manual Training Instructors as unsuitable for promotion as Junior Deputy Inspectors of Schools, the rules may be amended providing for such promotion, in the case of Manual Training Instructors who are qualified Secondary grade teachers. It does not however mean that all Manual Training Instructors should actually

With reference to Government Memo. No. 46212-C/44-2 Edn. dated 4-12-44, I have the honour to state that after having reconsidered the matter, I am of opinion that manual training instructors when promoted to the category of Junior Deputy Inspector of Schools, must be of an age, which will enable them to adopt themselves to the change over from their purely technical teaching to the Executive line, and also to accustom themselves to the rigours of an executive life. I consider, therefore, that the needs of the case will be met if a certain age-limit, namely 40 years is prescribed for the purpose. If this is agreed to, I submit below, for the approval of Government a draft of the amendments to the Special Rules for the Madras Educational subordinate service, to provide for the promotion of manual training Instructors to the category of Deputy Inspectors of schools (Junior scale).

C.No.3462. From the D.P.I., R.C.No.3211-C/44, d/- 22-1-45.

The Director agrees that manual training instructors may be made eligible for promotion as Junior Dy.Inspectors, but he would provide that instructors who have completed 40 years of age should be ruled out so that when they are promoted they will be at an age when they can face the change-over from purely technical teaching to the executive line without much difficulty.

2. (Under the rules) Appointments to posts of Junior

Dy.Insps. are made by Divisional Inspectors, presumably from a list prepared by the D.P.I., with refce. to rule 3(b) of the Special Rules relating to the M.E.S.S. The Director can apparently exclude 'over-age' instructors, where necessary, from such list without there being a rule absolutely barring the promotion of such instructors - particularly as under the rules promotions are to be made on the basis of merit and ability, seniority being considered only where merit and ability are
