I have the honour to submit herewith the following draft amendment with reference to para 3 of the G.O. quoted above:-

"For the existing sub-rule (2) of rule 12, chapter I, Rules relating to Elementary schools, the following shall be substituted:-

"(2) In elementary schools with standards above standard V, the headmaster and the teachers in charge of standards VI to VIII should ordinarily hold trained teachers' certificates of the secondary-- grade. In a complete higher elementary school which has four or more secondary-- grade teachers in the secondary-grade scale of pay, a Pandit possessing the qualifications prescribed in rule 13 of the Madras Educational Rules may, at the option of the management, be appointed in place of one of the secondary-grade teachers;

Provided that the Pandit is assigned all the language work of the higher elementary standards and where necessary of one or more of the lower standards also; and that the secondary grade teacher if any of the lower standard concerned is given some work in the higher elementary standards."
