Sir,

War - Evacuee Students - P.P.Venu Gopalan - Student, Junior B.A. Class - Presidency College, Madras - Allowance for 1944-45 - Sanction - Requested.

P. P. Venu Gopalan, Student, Junior B.A. Class, Presidency College, Madras, has applied for financial assistance for his Junior B.A. Course during the year 1944-45. He completed his Intermediate course from the Government Brennen College, Tellicherry in 1941 to 1943. After completing the Intermediate course, he continued his studies only in 1944. He was not granted any financial assistance for his education either by the Government of India or by the Educational authorities.

The students' father, Mr. K.P. Gopalan, was a Store Accountant in Burma Corporation Ltd., Nantun, getting a salary of Rs. 400/- P.M. He is stranded there. The student's family has no properties here as they were in Burma and evacuated on the outbreak of the war. The student's mother Mrs. Gopalan is getting an evacuee allowance of Rs. 100/- P.M. which is only sufficient for the maintenance of the family. She had received a sum of Rs. 9500/- from the Burma Government being the Provident Fund amount of her husband. Out of this she has purchased a house and compound for Rs. 8500/-. The balance of Rs. 1000/- was spent spent for the education of her children. The expenses for the intermediate course of the applicant also ~~was~~ were met out of it.

3 The probable expenditure required for the student's education during the year 1944-45, as intimated by the Principal, Presidency College, Madras, is Rs. 761--6--0. The details of it are given below.

1) College fees.	Rs. 162--0--0
2) Special fee.	Rs. 17-14--0
3) Boarding & Lodging.	Rs. 540--0--0 (for 9 months)
4) Cost of books.	Rs. 41--8--0

761--6--0

Rs. Seven hundred and sixty one, annas six only.

4 I consider the amount reasonable and request that Government may be pleased to recommend the grant of a sum of Rs. 761--6--0 (Seven hundred and sixty one /6/ only) to the student for the year 1944-45 and the same may be ordered to be paid as a recoverable advance now to be treated as non-recoverable on receipt of Government of India orders.
