Station Madras, Dated the 10th November 1944.

From (Name) SIR R.M. STATHAM, M.A., C.I.E., I.E.S., (Designation) DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
 Education and Public Health Department,
 Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,

Mrs. T.J. Cleatus, Lecturer in History in the Queen Mary's College, Madras, had been entrusted with the four hours teaching work in Logic for the Intermediate classes. Now that she is doing lecturing work in Economics for the B.Sc. Degree Home Science classes she was relieved of her Logic work as the University Inspection Commission recommended this step. The four hours work in Logic was entrusted to Mrs. G. Parthasarathi, Officiating Assistant Lecturer in English. The Registrar, University of Madras, objected to the above arrangement of teaching Logic as Mrs. G. Parthasarathi has no special qualifications for taking lecturing work in the subject, and suggested the appointment of a qualified person (i.e.) a graduate in Philosophy in her place. On enquiry the Principal, Queen Mary's College, has reported that the only member on the staff with a Philosophy Degree is Miss B. Swaminathan who is already having 15 hours of Music work per week and that therefore she will not be able to teach the subject with success. The Principal has also reported that the subject cannot be dropped without great detriment to the college as the choice for Arts students will become limited.

The possibilities of utilising the services of a Lecturer in Logic in the Presidency College to undertake the four hours lecturing work in Logic in the Queen Mary's College were then explored. With the concurrence of the Principals of both the colleges the Assistant Professor in Logic in the Presidency College has been deputed to undertake the Logic work in the Queen Mary's College from the beginning of the current academic year. A conveyance allowance not exceeding Rs.40/- per mensem has also been sanctioned for the journeys to be undertaken by him to and from the Queen Mary's College, Madras.

The Syndicate of the Madras University considered the proposal and resolved that a qualified woman Lecturer should be appointed in the college to teach the subject. It was represented to the University that as the number of hours of work in Logic is only four per week and as the Assistant Professor in the Presidency College has only nine hours work per week in this year the arrangement was considered to be the best and that it may therefore be continued as a special case. The Syndicate, however, approved the proposal as a temporary measure for the academic year 1944-45 and expressed the desirability of appointing a qualified woman lecturer from the next academic year. On a further representation made to the University as to the desirability of appointing a woman lecturer on a part-time basis, the Syndicate agreed to the appointment of a part-time woman lecturer possessing the required qualifications.

In the circumstances I request that the post of a part-time woman Assistant Lecturer in Logic for the Queen Mary's College, Madras on a salary of Rs.75/- per mensem may be sanctioned with effect from the academic year 1945-46. I may state further that if the Junior Intermediate class in the Presidency College works in two batches next year as it does in this year on account of increased strength, the Assistant Professor in that college will have 12 hours work a week and it may not be possible for him to undertake the work in the Queen Mary's College. The University is likely to object to that arrangement as the Assistant Professor will be called upon to do more than 14 hours of work. Furthermore I desire to point out that 4 hours a week (2 for each class - Junior Intermediate and Senior Intermediate) for Logic is an inadequate time table for proper instruction in that subject and if a part-time teacher is appointed adequate provision for the teaching of the subject can be made viz. 4 hours a week for each class.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Richard

The attention of the D.P.S. is invited to the concluding portion of para 2 of his letter Re No: 608A/41 D/17.7.42 in which it was reported that the University Commission which inspected the college in connection with the opening of the course in Home Science had recommended the appointment of an addl. Asst. Lecturer to teach English and Logic in the college. In any event the Govt are inclined to the view that it is uneconomical to have an Asst. Lecturer for 4 or 6 hours work in a week. The Director is requested to consider whether the teaching of Logic can be given up in the Queen Mary's College when the proposed women's College is opened at Egmore from next year.

Sir,

Sub: Queen Mary's College, Madras - Appointment of a Part-time woman Assistant Lecturer in Logic.
Ref: Government Memo No. 53941 C-1- Edn. & P.H., dated 18th December 1944.

In their Memo referred to above the Government have drawn attention to the fact that in 1942 the University of Madras agreed to the employment of an Assistant Lecturer for English and Logic and that an Assistant Lecturer employed for Logic alone would not have sufficient work. I have the honour to submit that the circumstances have changed since 1942. Mrs. G. Parthasarathi who was appointed as Assistant Lecturer in English was also entrusted with Logic work - But the University had stated that this lady has no qualifications to teach Logic and so the arrangements now in force in the college had to be made. Even the existing arrangement is not considered satisfactory by the University.

Further in view of the inadequate time table for proper instruction in that subject I proposed to the Government that if a part time teacher is appointed adequate provision for the teaching of the subject can be made (i.e) four hours a week for each of the two sections of the Intermediate class or Eight hours per week which is an adequate time table for a part time teacher. It would however appear from the Government Memo referred to above that the Government seem to contemplate the employment of a full time teacher for the subject and that the teacher would not therefore have sufficient work I have to submit that my proposal is for the employment of a Parttime woman Assistant Lecturer in Logic on a salary of Rs 75/- p.m.

As regards the question of the giving up of the subject in the Queen Mary's College, Madras, in view of the opening of the proposed Women's College at Egmore next year, I have to state that it is too early to consider the question as nothing definite has so far been done in connection with the opening of the proposed college. Further, the Principal, Queen Mary's College, Madras reports that it is impossible to give up Logic as it forms the third optional in the History Group for the majority of History students. The only alternatives are Indian Music and Geography and the Principal states that only a few have the musical ability for the first and the accommodation is limited for the second.

In the circumstances, I request that the Government may be pleased to sanction the post of a Part time woman Assistant Lecturer in Logic for the Queen Mary's College, Madras on a salary of Rs 75/- p.m. from the academic year 1945-46.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

C. No: 53041C. From the D.P.S. Re NO: 707-A/438/10.11.44

Queen Mary's College - Part-time Asst Lecturer for Logic.

Please see the D.P.S.'s letter in the ef. The arrangement under which the Asst. Lectures in English was entrusted with the ^{Logic} work was in accordance with the University Commission which inspected the College in connection with the opening of Asa Course in Home Science. It does not therefore seem that the Registrar of the University was justified in objecting to that arrangement. ^{Further} if the proposed women's College is opened at Egmore from next year there may not be much harm if the Queen Mary's College drops the Logic group. In any case there is no hurry for the present proposal and the D.P.S. may be asked to renew it ~~at an early date~~ early in July next with reference to the circumstances then prevailing. For orders.

It is just possible that what A on p. 10 of (D) was meant to convey that the Asst. Lecturer should be qualified in Logic & English. But Mrs. P. is not qualified in Logic.

We need not attach much value to P. or P. 2 C. 7 where the Dir. proposes to provide for 4 hours of instruction in Logic every week to each of his two Intermediate classes; at present it is only 2 hours and when it is as much as

 The proposal relates to the appointment of a part-time
 Assistant Lecturer for Logic on Rs 75 p.m. for the Queen Mary's College, Madras from the academic year 1945-46.

The teaching work in Logic for the Intermediate classes in the above College is for 4 hours per week. The various arrangements that have been made for teaching the above subject and the arguments advanced for the appointment of a part-time Assistant Lecturer are detailed on pp. 1-2 and 4 C.F.

The D.P.I. states that 4 hours a week (2 for each class-Junior and Intermediate) for Logic is an inadequate time table for proper instruction in that subject and that if a part-time teacher is appointed adequate provision for the teaching of the subject can be made (i.e.) 4 hours a week for each of the two sections of the Intermediate class or 3 hours per week. It does not seem that the University of Madras has taken any exception to the 4 hours time table in this subject in the Queen Mary's College. E. & P.H. may kindly obtain the following information in the first instance for a proper examination of the case.

- (1) No. of hours per week for each of the two sections of the Intermediate class in Logic in all Govt. Colleges.
- (2) The existing arrangements for teaching the above subject in those colleges (pay, allowances etc. for those in charge of teaching that subject).
- (3) The number of students offering the subject in those colleges for the last 3 years.
