considered by the Inspector-General and the Commissioner that the proposed investiture was undesirable and that as no reasons had been given by the Corporation for their proposal it was not possible to state whether such powers were necessary or not. Though Education and Public Health were asked in connexion with the present proposal to obtain from the Director of Public Health his reasons for the proposal, all that we have been told is that the Director of Public Health apparently considers it necessary that the Public Health Establishment should have police powers for enforcing the public health provisions of the Madras District Municipalities Act, etc. In the circumstances, if a reference to the Inspector-General is considered necessary about the desirability of investing members of the Public Health Establishment with police powers as contemplated by clause 117 of the Bill, the Education and Public Health Department may be requested once again to obtain from the Director of Public Health his reason for the proposed investiture. If, however, it is considered that no reference to the Inspector-General is necessary on the point as provisions enabling the Government to vest similar powers in municipal servants have been embodied in the Madras District Municipalities Act and the Madras City Municipal Act—vide section 357 of the Madras District Municipalities Act and section 404 of the Madras City Municipal Act—and as the Government have already made use of those provisions in certain cases, this department may perhaps suggest that clause 117 of the Bill may be revised on the lines of section 357 of the Madras District Municipalities Act and section 404 of the Madras City Municipal Act so as to provide that the sanction of the Government shall be necessary before any member of the Public Health Establishment (not below the rank of sanitary inspector) can exercise the powers of a police officer for the purposes of the proposed Act.

P.P.—26-1-38. T.K.—26-1-38.

The proposal is to invest members of the Public Health Establishment not below the rank of sanitary inspector with the police powers shown in inverted commas at M on page 167 ante.

The objection raised by the Commissioner of Police to a similar proposal to empower municipal sanitary inspectors is at 7.

There is some force in the Commissioner's objections, which are general; but if Education and Public Health consider that the advantages of empowering sanitary inspectors of the Public Health department outweigh the disadvantages, perhaps this department need not object.
