Madras, 29th January 1945
-3-

Sir,
I beg to state that on the 30th December 1944 I married for the second time, my first wife ^{my} V. Devi Bai, having died in the year 1941. As I had to perform the religious ceremonies in connection therewith according to the ^(and registered under The Special Marriage Act, 1922) Hindu custom and as it entailed upon me an expenditure of over Rs 100/-, the least that could be done during this time of economic distress ^{in keeping with} ~~and~~ my pecuniary circumstances and as I had to meet this sudden expenditure from the already depleted ^{already} resources and as I do not wish to run into debts on this account, I humbly beg to request that you will be so good as to sanction the payment of an advance of Rs. 48/- only (Rupees forty eight only) from the amount now standing to my credit in my G.P. 7. Account No. 3729 G.A., under Rule 14(C) ⁽¹⁾ of the General Provident Fund (Madras) Rules as a special case, to meet part of the expenses incurred by me in connection.

2. As a total sum of Rs. 16/- per mensem is being recovered from my salary of Rs 65+13(R.A.) on account of the recoveries towards three previous advances already sanctioned to me - viz - the first advance on July 1943, the second advance in February 1944 and the third and recent advance sanctioned by the Edn. & P.H. Department in their G.O. dated 2.11.44 (November 1944), and as the present advance now applied for is the fourth advance under the special circumstances narrated above, and as the sanction of the Government may be required for drawing the said advance under the G.P. 7. Rules, I humbly beg to request that you may be pleased to recommend my application for sanction to the Government in the Education and Public Health Department.

3. The advance of Rs. 48/- now applied for may be recovered in 12 monthly instalments of Rs. 4/- each with interest thereon under Rule 15(4) of the G.P. 7. Rules.

4. I beg to state that I have to my credit in my G.P. 7. Account No. 3729 G.A., a sum of ~~Rs. 100/-~~ Rs. 100/- on this date of 2/1/45

my application, as recently in November 1944 a sum of Rs 96/- was drawn by me by the sanction accorded by the ^{Government in the} Education and Public Health Department in connection with medical treatment during my recent illness (rheumatism) as a special case.

5. I humbly further beg to state that I have applied for this advance of Rs. 48/- in the special circumstances stated above as I have no other resources to fall back upon except the savings effected by me in my G.P.F. Account, and as it is not my intention to run into unnecessary private debts on account of this to meet the expenditure in connection with my marriage and as the amount ~~and~~ applied for now (Rs. 48/-) is indispensable to pay part of the marriage expenses I have already incurred and as my present pecuniary circumstances owing to my recent illness (rheumatism) for which the Govt were pleased to sanction the third (recent) advance in November 1944 in their ~~Order~~ ^{Order} dated 2.11.44 are such as to justify the grant of the advance as a special case, I humbly pray that you will be pleased to recommend this application to the Government for sympathetic consideration.

6. A statement of account from my G.P.F. Account No 37298A, is enclosed for your information.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
