*EMIGRATION War - Evacuees - College education - Annamalai University - Mr. W.A. Majeeth - education - allowance - grant of.

Mr. W.A. Majeeth a student of the final year class of the B.A. Course in the Annamalai University and a dependant of his father now stranded in the East Indies, has applied for financial assistance to complete his college education. He is a student of the IV bye-term class which commenced in October 44 and ends in Septr. 45.

2. There is evidence to show that the applicant's father, A. Abdul Wahab Sahib, was employed as a Commission Agent under Mask & Coy., Tasik Malaya, Java, on a decent pay, and that he was financially assisting his son in the prosecution of his studies. The applicant owns no property except a small house at Nellikuppam which is in the occupation of his family. He has already granted three monthly maintenance allowances of Rs. 25/- each to the student for the period from October to December 1944.

3. The student requests that he may be granted an allowance of Rs. 419/- (tuition fees Rs. 129/- Boarding and lodging for 9 months Rs. 270/- and cost of books Rs. 20/-) for the year 1944-45. The Registrar, Annamalai University recommends that a lump sum of Rs. 400/- may be granted to the applicant. I request that sanction of the Government of India may be obtained for payment of an educational allowance of Rs. 299/- (Two hundred and ninety nine only) to the student as per details furnished below:-

Tuition fees for the 3 terms at Rs. 43/- per term ..

Rs. 129-0-0

Cost of books, note books etc.
