dated 5th February 1945.

Sir,

SUBJECT: Education-Secondary - Commercial Instructor - Board High School, Arni - dearth of hands - additional work and payment of F.T.A. to Lakshmana Rao.N.S.Sri - Payment - Sanction Requested.

The Commercial Instructor of the Board High School, Arni was granted leave and permission to resign his appointment and consequently the work in the higher forms in the Commercial subjects was much handicapped. As no qualified hands for appointment as Commercial Instructor could be secured inspite of advertisements made in the dailies, it was decided to depute the Commercial Instructor Sri N.S.Lakshmana Rao of the Board High School, Polur to do the work at Arni in the latter part of the week including Saturday and at Polur in the former part of the week for the time being. Polur is 16 miles away from Arni and he has to travel every week incurring an expenditure of Rs.5-2-0 for his journeys to and fro and for his halt at Arni. Travelling allowance as per Madras Travelling Allowance Rules for each journey comes to only Rs.4-8-0 and consequently the teacher is put to a loss.

It is therefore proposed to pay him a Fixed Travelling Allowance of Rs.20/- per mensem from November 1944, ie. the month from which he undertook additional additional work at Arni and the amount has been paid in anticipation of Government's sanction. In the circumstances stated above and due to dearth of hands nowadays, I request that the Government will be pleased to approve my action and sanction the payment of an Fixed Travelling allowance of Rs.20/- per mensem to the teacher so long as he attends to additional work at Arni.

Board - High School - Polur - Sri N. Lakshmana Rao - Commercial Instructor.
Ref: Government Endorsement No. 5623-1B, Edn., dated 17th February 1945

The teacher is granted charge allowance at 1/5 of his substantive pay for the additional charge held by him in the High School at Arni. He would be entitled under the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules to Travelling Allowance of Rs. 4-9-0 for each trip to and fro inclusive of daily allowance for three days of halt at Arni and the total for four weeks in a month would amount to Rs. 18-4-0. There is therefore no objection to a fixed travelling allowance of Rs. 20/- per mensem being sanctioned, so long as this arrangement is in force, subject to the condition that the teacher works for 12 days a month in the school at Arni and refunds Rs. 1-10-8 for each day short worked.

2. The letter of the President, district board received with the Government endorsement is returned herewith.
