D.P.I. - Sir Mervel Statham's death -

He Dr. J.P.D (Personnel) just phoned me asking for Govt. orders in regard to the closing of the Director's own office ~~and~~ the offices subordinate to him. It is for consideration whether it may be ordered that all educational offices may be ordered to be closed for a day ^{to be decided} as a mark of respect for the late Sir Mervel Statham. No order may perhaps apply to municipal offices also.
 Schools and colleges are having their Xmas holidays.

Please see the E + P H Dept's note above.

It will be seen from para 2 of G.O. No 1031 of the 1917 Public & 16-9-1902 that Heads of offices can grant only two half holidays in a year for their establishments.

As the proposal of the E + P H Dept is for ordering a full holiday for the educational offices both in the City and the munifassal, it seems that sanction of Govt is necessary.

The question relating to the grant of a holiday to the office of the D.P.I. and other subordinate offices as a mark of respect to the late Sir Mervyn Stammers, was taken up at the instance of the Deputy D.P.I. (Personnel) on the 2nd instant. C.S. was not in favour of granting a full holiday; his view was agreed to in circulation. The Dy. D.P.I. was informed over the phone by A.S. about the decision. (The papers are put up in the office & file sent to the Governor's Secy.)

2. Mr. Lobo, Dy. D.P.I. for Elementary Education, has been put in charge of the office of the D.P.I. from the 3rd instant. He requests p/ante order for closing the Director's office for a day after holding a condolence meeting. It does not appear that the previous decision will be re-considered. Para 2 of G.O. No. 917 Public, dated 16-9-1902 empowers all heads of offices to grant ^{up to} two half holidays in a year in addition to authorised holidays. For order whether the Dy. D.P.I. in charge may be informed that no full holiday will be allowed and that it is open to him to grant a half holiday under para 2 of the G.O. cited above.

I think so.

I don't really see the point of closing the office at this late date. If a condolence meeting is arranged in the afternoon, the staff may be allowed not to attend it.
