Sir, Sri. S. R. Ranganathan, Librarian, Madras University Library, requests that he may be declared as an "Officer" referred to in Art. 349 A (1) of the Civil Service Regulations so as to make him eligible for pension under Art. 465-A of the Civil Service Regulations. As Sri. S. R. Ranganathan was in Government service as Assistant Professor, Presidency College, and his Services were lent to this University for employment as Librarian, University Library from the afternoon of 3-1-1924 (Vide G.O. No. 1790 Law, Education dated 28-12-1923) and permanently transferred to the University with effect from 4-1-1924 under G.O. No. 1089 Mis. Law (Education) Department dated 4-7-1924, the Syndicate considered the request of Sri. S. R. Ranganathan at its meeting held on 25-11-1944, and resolved that the question be referred to Government as it involves payment of proportionate pension by Government. I have the honour, therefore, to request you to be so good as to obtain the Orders of Government and to intimate to me the same.

The application of Mr. S. R. Ranganathan and his Service Register are sent herewith for reference and return.

Subject:- Sri. S.R. Ranganathan, Librarian, Madras University - Library - Pension.

Sir,

Ex. lat. at (Y)

In returning herewith the enclosures received with Government Endorsement No. 57650 C-1, dated 22-12-'44 on the subject indicated above, I have the honour to state that Sri. S.R. Ranganathan would have become eligible to the concessions of Article 349-A of Civil Service Regulations, if he had remained in Government service and been promoted as a Gazetted Officer in the Madras Educational Service. It might be possible for Government to ascertain from the Director of Public Instruction if necessary, whether he would have been so promoted. Even otherwise, there is no objection to Government agreeing to the proposal of the Syndicate of the University of Madras to accede to the request of Sri. S.R. Ranganathan as it does not involve undertaking any additional financial liability by Government under the existing circumstances. The question of increased liability to Government on account of his pension will arise only if his pay is raised beyond Rs. 833-5-4 per mensem.

As this office is not aware of the conditions of service of Mr. S.R. Ranganathan as the Librarian of the Madras University Library a reference may kindly be made to the Examiner of Local Fund Accounts before a final decision is reached on the point point under consideration.

EXAMINER'S OFFICE.

The services of Sri S.R. Ranganathan were transferred permanently to the University with effect from 4th January 1924. The University does not pay any contribution to leave salary or pension to Government; and the librarian has no title to be governed by the rules applicable to service under Government. Government will come in only in the matter of meeting Government's share according to the allocation of the pension settled finally.
 In essence, the case does not depend upon the eligibility of Sri S.R. Ranganathan to be governed by Article 349 A of Civil Service Regulations in consideration of his past service had he continued under Government service. He is essentially a servant of the University at the time of retirement. The claim for pension is governed by the rules in force at the time of retirement and not the rules at the time of entry into service. In the absence of any separate set of laws or rules which would be applicable to the officer in question, the general ordinance No. 91 governing conditions of service of the establishment of the University would be applicable and as there is no provision in the ordinances which would entitle him to retire after a service of 25 years or which would empower any authority of the University to permit the retirement after a qualifying service of 25 years only, the request may not be admitted.

Please see the remarks of the Examiner of L.F.A. at pp.2-3 ante. He considers that general Ordinance No.91 governing conditions of service of the establishment of the University would be applicable to Sri S.R.Ranganathan and that as there is no provision in the Ordinance which would entitle him to retire after 25 years' service, his request that he should be brought under article 349-A of the C.S.R. is inadmissible. The Examiner's view may perhaps be agreed to. Draft for approval. Finance may see
