Books and periodicals—Published out of India—Purchase after 31st July 1945—Orders passed.

READ—the following paper :—

G.O. No. 1223, Education, dated 2nd July 1940.

Order—No. 574, Education, dated 12th April 1945.

The existing contract with Messrs. P. Varadachary & Co. for the supply of books and periodicals published out of India expires on 31st July 1945. From the reports received from the various indentors, it is observed that service of the company to some of the most important indentors has been unsatisfactory. The Government have considered the question whether the contract should be renewed for a further period and have decided to dispense with the contract system till normal conditions are restored. The contract with Messrs. P. Varadachary & Co. will not therefore be renewed from 1st August 1945. Heads of Departments and Departments of the Secretariat are informed that they should make their own arrangements to get the publications required by their department.

Ref:- Memo.No.1297.B/45-1. Edn. dated 10th January 1945.

Messrs. P. Varadachary & Co. have not been supplying books to the Library of the Madras Legislature regularly. Orders placed with them in 1942, 1943, and 1944 have not yet been fully executed. They have yet to supply 360 books some of which are available for sale with the other local booksellers. The Company's attention was drawn to this fact, and a copy of their reply is enclosed. The reasons given by them do not seem to be convincing. The Company's service has therefore not been satisfactory.

Letter from Messrs. P.Varadachary & Co. dated 7th Aug. 1944..

Your enquiry by phone.

In answer to your enquiry above on the state of orders sent overseas and their related supply, we have to state as follows.

Your orders as passed to us are supplied with those books that are immediately available from our stocks and the stocks held by the respective agents of the different publishers within India and then forwarded to our overseas suppliers. These orders as they reach London are executed to the utmost possible extent that stocks of the different titles are available The items that may not be available are left over for possible supply at an indefinite date.

The publishers loath reporting on the availability of these unsupplied books, as they write that many of the titles announced in the lists do not carry enough stocks to meet demands, especially at these times when production is controlled and limited to ~~kmark~~ forty per cent maximum output on the basis of pre-war productions. And the little stock that are put up for sale run out of print shortly on publication, as the demands made on them for internal consumption are heavy and few copies are available for colonial exports.

(38) 68

The treatment of orders from 1941 to the first half of the year 1943 was particularly very dull on account of the many hardships that publishers were subjected to and even the scant supplies that were made to India failed to reach the destination in the majority of cases. As could be observed from the supplies made during the past months, supplies are reaching rather more easily and we trust that henceforward books will be arriving regularly and as and when supplies reach us, we shall advise delivery to you.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully.

Books and Periodicals - Purchase through Messrs.P.Varadachari & Co.
Ref:-Your Memo.No.1297 B/45-1 Edn. dated 10th Jany. 1945.

Since 1941 some of the English law reports including the Common-Wealth Law Reports of Australia have not been received regularly. In November 1942 a list of the missing issues of the several law reports was sent to Messrs.P.Varadachari & Co. asking them to arrange for their immediate supply. In January 1943 the firm replied that they had addressed their suppliers overseas. Nothing however resulted even after two reminders. In January 1944 the firm were reminded again of the Common Wealth Law Reports due from Vol.65 onwards. In February 1944 they were reminded of these as well as of the other missing back issues of the other law reports. In March another reminder was sent to them and on 22-3-1944 they replied that they had written to their London suppliers and sent them general reminders, but that their repeated answers were that all the issues had been despatched correctly upon publication and that they were all "out of print to be duplicated". On 27-4-44, the firm were furnished with a list of the missing issues of the 1943 Law Reports and asked to write for them immediately. On 28-4-44 they replied that they were addressing their suppliers and that the missing issues would be supplied if available. In August 1944 the firm were reminded. They replied that their Agents' general reply was that they were unable to forward copies as the Publishers had no stock. On 26-8-44 I pointed out to them that it was their duty to make every endeavour to supply the High Court with the periodicals for which they had been paid, but they disclaimed all responsibility.

Meanwhile I got in direct touch with the publishers and obtained many of the missing copies on payment. It is very doubtful whether the firm or their London agents pursued this matter very energetically. In reply to my letter to the Incorporated Council of Law Reporting for England and Wales, it was discovered that the 1941 Indian Appeals, Vol.68 had never been despatched and the Council sent me two copies. They further pointed out that 'Weekly Notes' Nos.10,12 and 15 of 1941 were inserted in Nos.9, 11 and 14 respectively and these missing parts were discovered.

Perhaps the greatest laxity on the part of the firm was with regard to the Common_Wealth Law Reports of Australia. In November 1942 the firm were informed that these reports from Vol.65 onwards had not been received. In January 1944 the firm were reminded of this. In September 1944 I addressed the publishers in Melbourne. Their reply was that they had no record of having received an order for the volumes subsequent to Volume 64 and they immediately sent the remaining volumes and parts overdue.

It will involve more correspondence for the High Court to obtain these publications direct from the publishers; but possibly more satisfactory service could be obtained in the present circumstances if the orders for the periodicals could be placed with the publishers direct. Messrs.P.Varadachari & Co. do not themselves place the orders with the publishers but with London agents who pass on the orders to the publishers (please see also High Court's letter R.O.C.No.672/40/B-5 dated 12-2-1940).

The direction of Government in Memorandum No.45176/B-2 Edn. dated 9-12-1941 was that they should supply duplicate copies of periodicals lost, wherever possible, but obviously the firm has not made such efforts as they should have done to obtain duplicate copies of missing parts. Accordingly the Hon'ble the Chief Justice considers that the service of the firm has been unsatisfactory in this respect.

Reference:- Government Memorandum No.1297-B/45-1 Edn. dated 10th January 1945 regarding the purchase of books through Messrs. P.Varadachary & Co.

The supply of books and periodicals has been constantly reported by the indentors of this department to be unsatisfactory, especially since the beginning of the hostilities. A reference is invited to this office letters Ref.No. 9078-28-H dated 21st December 1943 and R.No.9078-H dated 11th September 1944 disposed of in Government Memoranda No.43394-D2/43-2 P.H., dated 28th January 1944 and No.44962-D2/44-2 P.H., dated 11th October 1944 respectively. Most of the indentors of this Department have since stated that the service of the Company has been unsatisfactory and some of them have asked for permission for the direct purchase of the books and periodicals. In this connection, I enclose herewith a copy of letter No.268 G of 45 dated 26th January 1945 from the Superintendent, Government Hospital for Women and Children, Madras and also a copy of letter of the Director, King Institute, Guindy. In the circumstances stated therein, the Superintendents of Hospitals, the Director, King Institute, Guindy and the Principals, Medical Colleges may be authorised to purchase books and periodicals direct from the Publishers from Home and abroad.

for Surgeon-General with the Govt. of Madras,

I

Copy of letter No.268-G/45 dated 26th January 1945 from the Superintendent, Government Hospital for Women and Children, Madras.

Ref.- Your No.4195-H dated 19th January 1945.

Orders for books and periodicals placed through Messrs. P. Varadachary & Co., have not been executed in time during the past five years and so at the end of each official year I find that a major portion of the amount allotted is unspent and the books indented for not received, the reason given being that the books are not available. Most of the books not supplied by them were available with different book-sellers, as members of the staff and Post-Graduates have been able to get them. Under the circumstances, it is desirable that the sanctioned amount be placed with the Professor of Obstetrics and Gynaecology and the Superintendent of the Hospital to purchase th the books direct without having to place the order through a book-seller whose services, as far as the midwifery department is concerned, have been unsatisfactory. . . .

II.

Copy of letter R.C.No.9905-3-G/44 dated 29th January 1945 from the Director, King Institute, Guindy.

Reference:- Your letter Ref.No.4195-H dated 19th January 1945 communicating for report Government Memorandum No. 1297-B/45-1 Edn. dated 10th January 1945 regarding the purchase of books and periodicals through Messrs. P. Varadachary & Co., Madras.

I have the honour to state as follows:-

The services of the Agents Messrs. P. Varadachary and Co., Madras, were quite satisfactory prior to War.

Since 1939, however, their services have not been satisfactory, though the war may have contributed to this in some measure. We were having considerable difficulties in the receipt of periodicals and to-date many sets of the periodicals that we had indented for have remained incomplete for want of receipt of several issues. This fact had been brought to the notice of the Surgeon-General and the Government from time to time.

The explanation given by the Agents was that their responsibility ceased with the placing of orders on the publishers and that they were not responsible for the regular receipt of the journals. The Agents insisted on prepayment before the receipt of journals in the Institute, a procedure which could not be followed till recently - vide Government memo E. and P.H., No. 50181-B3 dated 17th January 1941.

I may here state that this Institute subscribes for 59 foreign and 13 Indian periodicals. The total cost of these periodicals amounts to Rs.2000/- approximately. The total budget allotment for the purchase of books and periodicals for this Institute for the year 1944 was Rs.2000/-; prior to the War, the annual expenditure approached Rs.3000/-. Since the number of periodicals indented for by the Institute is fairly large, it was suggested to the Surgeon-General in reply to your confidential letter No.54575-5-G/42 dated the 27th May 1943 the Institute may be permitted to make arrangements direct with the Publishers to obtain all the necessary periodicals. This suggestion may be considered.

I have the honour to report that the service of Messrs. P. Varadachari & Co., Agents for the supply of Books and Periodicals has not been satisfactory.

2. The Principals of Government Colleges have generally complained that there has been considerable delay in the matter of supplies on the part of the Government Agents. It cannot be said that this delay is due to the existing war conditions. It is reported that even books that are actually available in the local branches of English firms, eg., Oxford University Press, Messrs. MacMillan & Co., etc., are not promptly obtained and supplied to the Government institutions whereas non-Government non-Government institutions are able to obtain them immediately they appear on the market. I, therefore, recommend that t h e system of purchasing Books, etc., through an Agent be kept in abeyance for the period of the war and that the indenting Officers may be permitted to place their orders directly with the firms concerned.

Section 199 of the Madras Local Boards Act, section 303 of the Madras District Municipalities Act and section 347 of the Madras City Municipal Act, empower the Government to make rules under those Acts. It seems necessary to empower Government to frame rules under the Public Health Act. Clause 108 of the Bill may be accepted.

Clauses 108 to 110.—Clause 108 gives power in general terms to the Provincial Government to make rules and clause 110 gives power to the local authority in equally general terms to make by-laws. Both the powers are expressed in very wide terms, and the question would arise as to what should happen in case of a conflict between the rules and the by-laws. The intention obviously is that the by-laws should be consistent with the rules made under the Act. This may be brought out quite clearly by a suitable amendment of clause 110.

I agree. In more than one case I have found books which Messrs. Varadachari could not supply, available at Messrs. Higginbothams, Maha-devan's in Madras. The fact that Messrs. Varadachari may supply them at slightly cheaper rates (para 7 p.2'L') is quite outweighed by the fact that we get them sometimes only two or three years later. Often when an officer who has asked for them has left long ago.

It seems better as far as the library is concerned to make arrange-ments direct with book-sellers like Taraprewala's in Bombay many of them may be prepared to give discount for books and also periodicals.

P.G.N 14-2-43

I entirely agree. I feel that Varadachari's have let us down badly in the matter of books.

till normal conditions are restored and each head of Dept or executive officer may be left to make his own arrangements to get the press publications required by his Dept. This may turn out to be more expensive & may involve more labour on the part of the executive officers, but it will save a lot of correspondence (with their agents) and there will be all round better & prompter work.
