Owing to very heavy work my health has been shattered my eyes give me pain if I work long hours during nights. Further during my recent visit to Pannaikadu; I had a slight attack of malaria and since then I am now and then subject to slight head ache and cough. Lastly my eldest son who is in the Indian Army is not writing to me for the last five months and this is of great anxiety. In the circumstances, I request that I may be granted leave on average pay for two months from 2-5-1946.
