No.SBC. 1mis

Dated 14th April 1945.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that the sanction accorded in G.O. No.1573 Edn., dated 25th October 1944 for the grant of a special pay of Rs 7/- per mensem to Sri V. Rajagopal, Booking clerk, Government Press, Madras expires on 30-4-45. Though a strong case was made out to raise his pay, Government were not pleased to sanction the same. The special pay sanctioned is too small to compensate the heavy responsibility thrown upon the Booking clerk and the long number of hours asked to be worked by him. If he is allowed overtime as other technical employees of the Press, his overtime allowance will work to about Rs 20/- per mensem.

2. Under these circumstances and in view of the fact his work continues to be heavy I would request that Government may be pleased

pleased to continue the special pay for another year at an increased rate of at least Rs 15/- per mensem.

Gen. Pres. Barking clerk. Special

pay. Increase -

11-2

The S.G.P. requests that the special pay, granted to Sri V. Rajagopal Barking clerk, Gen. Pres. may be revised to Rs 15/- as the present rate is too small to compensate the heavy responsibilities thrown upon him.

In G.O. no. 11573 dated 25.10.44, Mr. Rajagopal Menon recommended the increase of pay of Barking clerk from Rs 30-60 to Rs 55-52-70 on account of the heavy responsibilities and outdoor work attached to the post. This despite supporting the reasons of pay not increase by saying while declining to raise the pay expressed himself in favour of granting a special pay of Rs 7/- per month for a period of six months after which the question of pay might be reviewed. In view of the fact that the S.G.P. is present proposal may be supported in this behalf. Attention is in this connection to be drawn to the fact that the increase may be.

The file deals with the question of special pay to Sri Rajagopal, Booking Clerk, East Press, Madras. In October last, the S.A.P. recommended that the scale of the booking clerk might be increased from Rs 30-50 to Rs 55-70 in view of the heavy work devolved on him on account of the war. Deputy Secretary suggested that in that connection there was no case for increasing the scale and that a special pay of Rs 7/- might be allowed to Sri Rajagopal for 6 months and the position reviewed thereafter.

2. The S.A.P. has now proposed that the rate of sp. pay might be increased to Rs 15/- p.m. with which Estt. have agreed. Submitted that sufficient grounds do not exist for increasing the rate of Rs 7/- as suggested sought by the S.A.P. His reason that the clerk would have become eligible for an overtime pay of Rs 20/- is ~~not strong~~, ~~as~~ clerks in Govt. offices are not given overtime pay for working extra hours. Further the ~~rate~~ ^{sp. pay} of Rs 15/- is disproportionately large amount for a person drawing ^{sp. pay} Rs 36/-, and it exceeds the normal one-fifth limit (as laid down in F.R. 19). The rate of Rs 7/- suggested by D.S. seems to be very fair rate ^{for him} ~~incommensurate~~. In view of these reasons Finance may suggest that the special pay of this clerk may be allowed to continue at the rate of Rs 7/- till an extra hand is appointed, when the special pay may be ~~withdrawn~~ ^{abandoned}.

With reference to Fin Deputy Secretary's letter at x on p. 2 ante, it is submitted that the S.P. has not asked for any extra hand now. For as much as the S.P. may be asked to send proposals for the appointment of an extra hand to assist Sri Rajagopal and the special of Rs 7/- sanctioned in G.O. no 1573 Edu. d Q.S. 10.44 to Sri Rajagopal Rajagopal ~~may~~ ^{will} be continued till an extra hand is appointed.

The S.P. may be told that, if he considers it expedient that an extra hand be appointed, he may put up necessary proposals for this. Till the extra hand is appointed, the sp. pay will be continued at Rs 7/- p.m. as before, (provided ^{of course} it is discontinued when the extra work ceases) and after the extra hand is appointed, the sp. pay will ~~cease~~ ^{be} cease.
