Extract from the Report of the Education Sub-Committee of the Nannilam Taluk Board dated 5--10--1931.

Board Boys school, Ammayappan.

Although the total number of pupils on rolls was 200, the attendance in the Higher standards VII and VIII was very poor. If the attendance does not improve in future it is suggested to abolish higher standards in preference to continue the poorly attended higher standards. For the present in view of the poor strength, if the staff of the school may be reduced by one.

Board Boys school, Enangudi:-

Enangudi is a good centre where an Elementary Higher grade school can progress well. The attendance of the pupils on the date of the visit was 143 as against the total strength of 202 on the rolls. Here also the attendance in higher standards is hopelessly poor. Unless there is going to be new admissions in the higher standards at any rate there is no --
