R.C.No.1300 J/44 dated 12th Dec. 1944.

Sir,

Sub: Teachers' Provident Fund - Belated deposits of contributions to the accounts of subscribers of the Rajah's High School, Ramnad.
Condonation of the delay in deposit - Requested.

The salaries for the months of March, April and May 1935 due to the staff of the Rajah's High School, Ramnad fell into arrears for want of funds with the management. The Dewan of the Ramnad Samasthanam ordered that the arrears of salaries due to the staff would be paid only when the management secured adequate funds. In April 1936 the Court of Wards took charge of the school and sanctioned payment of the arrears of salaries in 1941 only. On account of the long delay in the payment of salaries to the subscribers for the three months (March to May) 1935, the contributions on behalf of the subscribers were remitted in 1941 only on the following dates, viz., 4-8-41, 4-9-41 and 10-10-41. The names of the subscribers are given below:-

1. Sri R. Pichumani Ayyar.
2. Sri S.V. Veeraraghava Ayyar.
3. " S. Venkatesa Ayyagaur.
4. " P. L. Kesava Ayyar.
5. " T. S. Panchapakasa Sarma.
6. " P. S. Narayana Ayyangar.
7. " V. Venkateswara Sastri.
8. " A. Mayandi Servai.
9. " R. Panchapakasa Ayyar.
10. " V. Kailasam Ayyar.
11. " S. Somanatha Ayyar.

2. In the case of the following subscribers the vacation salary for 14 days in June 1936 was settled and sanctioned by the school committee in 1939 only. Hence the contributions for June 1936 were remitted on their behalf in October 1939 as shown below:-

Name of the subscriber.	Period of contribution.	Date of deposit
1. Sri R. Pichumani Ayyar	June 1936	11-10-1939.
2. Sri S. Somanatha Ayyar	June 1936	11-10-1939.

3. The delay in deposit of contributions in the above said cases was caused under extraordinary circumstances beyond the control of the subscribers. If the delay in deposit is not condoned, the belated deposits would not be taken into account for purposes of Government contribution and the subscribers would be penalized for no fault of their own. I have, therefore, the honour to request ~~XXXX~~ that Government may be pleased to condone the delay in these cases with reference to para 2 of G.O.No.522 Edn., dated 6-4-1944. In a similar case relating to the subscribers of the V.C. Secondary school, Omalur, the Government were pleased to condone the delay in deposit caused under special circumstances - vide G.O.No.134 Edn., dated 31-1-1944.

R. Narasimham
for Director of Public Instruction.

R.C.13/12.

The D.P.I. has recommended ^{Ex P.A.(C)} that a blanket condonation may be given in respect of all delays which occurred prior to the issue of G.O. 1542 Edn. of 29.10.42. On that, a ^{ref.} has been ~~issued~~ ^{made} to him and his reply awaited. This may be over all a decision is arrived at there.

At the margin

The cases mentioned in para 1 on p1 ante will not fall within the "five-year limit." But those referred to in para 2 will come ~~under~~ ^{now} under that. As it is, however, proposed to issue orders ~~in~~ ^{now} the first set, the second set also may be included in the order.

2. The circumstances under ^{which} the delays in question were caused are not exactly similar to those in G.O. No. 134 Edn. of 31.1.44 referred to by the D.P.I. There the ownership of the school was in dispute and nobody could be blamed for the delay in disbursing the teachers' salaries. In the present case, the school was managed by the Comt of Wards and the responsibility for the delay in the payment of salaries rests with them. It is not usual to condone delays occasioned by the fault of the management. On the other hand, the school ^{probably} came under the management of the Comt along with the Samasthanam and as such it was possible that the affairs of the school could not be given had to await settlement along with other matters relating to the Samasthanam. In this view the delay cannot be treated as due to neglect on the part of the management. It is, therefore, for orders whether the delays may be condoned as a special case. The remarks of ^{the} ~~management~~ ^{Samasthanam} may be endorsed.

The broad fact remains that the management delay cannot be treated as due to neglect on the part of the management. It is, therefore, for orders whether the delays may be condoned as a special case. The remarks of ^{the} ~~management~~ ^{Samasthanam} may be endorsed.
