 Please see the U.O. Note of the Public (Press) on page 2 ante.
 Necessary action may be taken by the Sections concerned to include the three newspapers in the distribution lists of the Administration Register of this Department, if they do not find a place already there, so that copies of the Administration Reports, when their printing is resumed, may be supplied to the three newspapers.

Please see the extract of note on p. 1 ante. This section is concerned with the following two Administration Reports:-

(1) Administration Report on the Registration of Births, Deaths and Marriages Act and other allied Acts.

(2) Administration Report of the Madras Record Office, ^{was}

Item (1) above. - The printing of this report ~~has been~~ suspended for the duration of the war. The distribution list of this report is on pp. 16-17 of G.O. 156 Law (Regis) dated 6-11-35. The three newspapers mentioned on p. 1 ante may now be included in the distribution list so that G.O. may be supplied to them when the printing of the report is resumed.

Item (2) above: - It is submitted that there is no list for this report nor is the report placed at the disposal of the Press. Copies of the report were being sent on to the authorities mentioned in the despatch under p. 7 of G.O. 1165 Edn., dated 25.5.38. Copies of the report are not being supplied to any newspaper. It is

Therefore seem that copies of this report should be supplied to the three newspapers even after the printing of this report is resumed.

Public (Press) may see for remarks.
