Dear Sir,

I hope you would have seen my note yesterday asking for information about nominations to be made to the Senate. I had a talk over it with the Secretary, Edn. & P.H. previously and have had occasion to go through the file in which notification of the nominations have been Ordered. I think it is essential ^{that is an important} ~~matter~~ ^{like this} ~~which~~ the Chancellor should ~~have~~ consulted the Minister for Education before issuing the notification. I have put up a note in the file asking for the notification to be withheld. I hope H.E. would not mind my withholding the publication. I shall be glad to have H.E.'s views on the subject. I am informing the Prime Minister also about this.

Yours sincerely,

J. Platt Esq., I.C.S.,

17-5-1946:--

I have discussed the matter with H.M. Edn.
The situation is that the responsibility for nomination rests solely in the hands of the governor, who is under no obligation to seek ministerial advice.

Even so, I have decided that in future when nominations for this or any other University of which xix I am Chancellor come up for consideration, the Minister will invariably be informally consulted before decisions are made.
