Sir,

I am directed to invite a reference to the correspondence ending with your letter No. Ref. 15778-B/45, 1-Edn., dated the 21st April 1945, on the above subject and to request that, if there is no objection the Superintendent of Stationery, Madras, may be authorised to arrange for the supply of the following items of clothing to the Engineer Supervisor, Lighthouse Workshops, Bangalore, for the use of the inferior staff of the Workshops for the year 1946 :-

- (1) One khaki suit
- (2) Two longcloth coats.
- (3) Six yards mull.
- (4) Two dhoties of three yds each.
- (5) Eight khaki shirts.
- (6) Eight khaki shorts.
- (7) One Cross Belt.

2. Particulars regarding measurements etc., can be obtained from the Engineer Supervisor. The bill of cost may be sent to the Engineer-in-Chief, Lighthouse Department, Simla, for payment.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Retransmitted.

In Education and Public Health Department, Memo.No.30583-B/43-2 Edn. dated 30-9-1943, the Superintendent of Stationery is authorised to arrange for the supply of the clothing required by the Engineer Supervisor, Lighthouse Workshop, Bangalore, for the inferior servants employed in the Madras Lighthouse Workshop. A similar sanction may now be accorded for the supply of the clothing on payment required in the present case. The khaki suits and khaki shirts and shorts will be arranged for supply out of khaki drill material and one Blue serge cross belt with red serge border will be supplied on receipt of sanction. Instead of Bhoties, two pieces of white mull at 3 yards each will be arranged for supply as Dhoties are not stocked and supplied by this Department.

The Engineer Supervisor may be requested to furnish this department with the particulars of measurements for uniforms in the prescribed indent form.
