the additional staff applied for in my letter Rc. 352-K/46,

The choice of Nuremberg, Germany as the site for the first trials was made by U.S. Lieut. Gen. Lucius Clay, Gen. Eisenhower's deputy. The dispatch said Jackson referred to the fact that Nuremberg prison adjoins the court house and that Nazi prisoners may be moved with a minimum danger of interference from fanatical Germans.

The trial court, which will be made up of one representative from each of the four major Allies -- U.S, Britain, Russia and France -- will decide, Jackson said, whether membership in the Nazi elite guard or similar organizations constitutes more than mere presumption of guilt. If the court rules affirmatively then lesser criminals in other zones who belonged to such groups could only plead alleviating circumstances. ---USOTI.

SUBMARINE CREW LANDED ON SAKHALIN. BLEW UP TRAIN

Pearl Harbor, Aug. 21 -- The daring exploit by part of the crew of the American submarine Garb when they slipped ashore on the Japanese half of Sakhalin Island last month and blew up a train with a bomb made from a pickle can was revealed here August 20.

After waiting several nights for a moonless night the men paddled ashore in rubber boats and landed in the backyard of Japan. They crawled to the railroad tracks but were forced to jump into ditches with their explosives when an unscheduled train came by.

They fixed a charge which blew up another unscheduled train when they were only halfway back to the submarine. They made it by paddling furiously.
The explosion blew up the engine and all the cars rolled off the track in a mass of wreckage. ---USOTI.
