Although each district will be the unit for the purposes of first appointment and seniority, recruitment need not be confined to the members of the Bar of the district in which the appointment is made.

2. Any of the Prosecuting Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors in the districts mentioned in the statement in paragraph 1 of this Order who are either graduates in law or have passed the pleader-ship examination will be allowed the option to elect to come into the cadre of Assistant Public Prosecutors in Grades I and II, respectively, or to remain in the Madras Police Subordinate Service. Orders regarding the consequent reduction in the number of posts of Sub-Inspectors of Police in the vacancy reserve will be issued along with the orders referred to in paragraph 15 below.

7. The District Magistrates concerned are requested to report to the Government the dates of appointment and the full names of Assistant Public Prosecutors appointed by them. On receipt of these reports the Government will issue orders under section 492, Criminal Procedure Code, appointing the Assistant Public Prosecutors to be Public Prosecutors.

8. The Discharge of persons consequent on the reduction of staff ordered in paragraph 6 above will be regulated by the Madras Reductions in the Cadre of Services Rules issued in G.O.No.1224, Public (Services), dated the 4th December 1934. The Inspector-General of Police is requested to see that account is taken of the reduction in cadre that will result from the extension of this scheme, when proposals for the recruitment of Sub-Inspectors of Police are submitted to the Government in future.

9. Necessary amendments to the special rules for the Madras General Subordinate Service will issue separately.

10. The District Magistrate concerned will be the authority competent to draw the pay and travelling allowance of Assistant Public Prosecutors within his respective jurisdiction. In order to facilitate the checking of travelling allowance bills, Assistant Public Prosecutors should be directed to submit their diaries which should contain full particulars about the work done by them and the dates and the places covered by the journeys performed, to the District Magistrate concerned through the District Superintendent of Police.

11. The law books and furniture used previously by the Prosecuting Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors in the 17 districts should be transferred for the use of the Assistant Public Prosecutors in those districts. The Inspector-General of Police is requested to arrange for the transfer to the District Magistrates concerned for re-issue to the Assistant Public Prosecutors.

12. If possible, District Magistrates should find accommodation for the offices of Assistant Public Prosecutors in buildings under their control. If no suitable accommodation is available, the Assistant Public Prosecutors may hold office in their entitled dwellings; but they should be informed that they will not be entitled to charge Government any rent for using portions of their residences for Government work.

13. The Inspector-General of Police is requested to submit proposals to Government urgently on the questions (1) who should be the appointing authority of Assistant Public Prosecutors for the 2 Railway Police districts, (2) under whom the Assistant Public Prosecutors should undergo their training and (3) where their offices should be located.

14. It has been recommended to the Government that Assistant Public Prosecutors, II Grade should be allowed inter-class railway travel. The Government accept the recommendation. Amendment to the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules for the purpose will be issued by the Finance Department.

15. Separate orders will issue on the question of providing a vacancy reserve for the Cadre of Assistant Public Prosecutors.

16. The expenditure will be debited to "27.g. Administration of Justice - Criminal Courts - Stationary Sub-Magistrates, Bench Magistrates and other establishments - B. Pay of establishments".
