No. A2-1260-46 dated 23rd May 1946.

Sir,

Venkatachari, Sri A - Acting Manager - Stamp and Stationery Office, Madras - House rent allowance - continuance - Requested.

Sri A.Venkatachari, permanent storekeeper and Officiating Head Accountant of this office was granted an house rent allowance of Rs.15/- p.m. for one year from 1-4-45 in Board's Ref.L.Dis.W.4831/45 dated 4-10-45. He is now acting as Manager from 12-3-46 F.N. in the leave vacancy. As house rent allowance is not attached to the post of the Manager he has not been drawing it since 12-3-46 and hence his total emoluments as Manager is less than that he drew as Head Accountant as detailed below:-

Head Accountant.

Substantive pay - Rs.100/-
House rent allowance. Rs. 15/-
Dearness allowance Rs. 18/-

Total Rs. .. 133/-

Manager.

Substantive pay - Rs.100/-
Officiating pay 10/-
Dearness allowance 19/-

Total Rs. 129/-

No house rent allowance is attached to the post of Manager. Since he is unable to draw this allowance of Rs.15/- p.m. the total emolument he gets as Manager is less than what he was drawing as Head Accountant. The officiating pay of Rs.10/- he now gets is only for the higher responsibility involved in the post of the Manager. Further he continues to incur the same expenditure for the house accommodation in the present post also, as he is not able to change the house, the housing problem at present being very acute. I, therefore, request that sanction may be accorded for the drawal of the house rent allowance of Rs.15/- p.m. by him as a special case in the present post also.

The Govt do not approve the proposal of the S & S of Rs.15/- p.m. to grant Madras House Rent Allowance ~~as a special~~ Stationery Office, to Sri. A. Venkateshwar A.S. Manager ~~for the allowance~~ ~~not attached to the post of Manager~~. They, however, sanction the grant of a personal Compensatory allowance ~~to be merged in future increments~~ of Rs.5/- p.m. to the A.S. Manager ~~so that the immediate~~ loss in his emoluments may be met.

House rent allowance - Continuance

Sri. A. Venkataswami, Ag. Manager of the Stationary Office was drawing House rent allowance of Rs 15/- while officiating as Head Accountant. Since house rent allowance is not attached to the post of Manager, he became ineligible for the allowance of Rs 15/- from 12.3.46 when he became the Manager in a leave vacancy. In addition, he loses by his promotion Rs 4/- in total emolument aside the details given by the S.G.S. The S.G.S. proposes that Sri. A. Venkataswami may be given the house rent allowance of Rs 15/- from a special case while holding the post of Manager, since he continued to incur the expenditure for which house rent allowance was given.

2. The proposal of the Sgs may be supported in this Dept. ~~It need be, the house rent allowance may be attached to the post of Manager also in cases similar cases that may arise in future.~~ It will not suffice if only the loss in emoluments is made good by the grant of a personal compensatory allowance as in the case of James Asha, Ag. Storekeeper of the Stationery Office, disposed of in G.O. No. 335 Cdn d. 18.2.46. The officiating pay of Rs 10/- is purely for additional responsibilities involved in the post of Manager, ~~and should not be taken into account for purpose of emoluments.~~

3. The case may be sent to Pw 2 for remarks.

I take it when the permanent incumbent returns the acting Manager reverts to the post which came with it. Here Allura in that view he may be allowed to draw H. House Allowance at the old rate applicable, to wit, Rs. ^{15/-} ~~10/-~~ or less should a recalculation on new rates of pay show he is entitled to less. Other emoluments as ^{Head Account} ~~that~~ may remain unaffected.

Please see the note of 2 HP 46 from p 1 above with reference to the proposal to sanction a house rent allowance of Rs 15/- per month to Mr Venkatachari, permanent store-keeper and Ag. Accountant in the office of the Superintendent of Stationery, now posted as Manager in the same office. As no house-rent allowance is attached to the post of Manager, presumably because the scale of the post is such as it does not require any such allowance, it does not seem desirable to sanction any house-rent allowance to Mr Venkatachari even as a special case. Such ^{now} ~~occurrences~~ ^{cases} are not uncommon in Govt service and promotion does not always bring benefit to the incumbent. It therefore seems enough if the immediate loss of enrolments ^(excluding dearness allowance) arising out of promotion viz (Rs 115 - Rs 110) Rs 5 may be made good to him as personal compensatory allowance - vide also precedent in G.O 335 & 813-2-45.

With the above remarks the case may be returned to E.H.H.

There appears to be no reason why this case should be treated any different from (A) below.

The difference between the present case and that in (A) below lies in the fact that the former is entitled to a House Rent Allowance ^{as a Head Accountant} and is actually incurring that expenditure while the latter did not become entitled to it ^{as a Head Accountant} as a storekeeper. For orders whether the former may be accepted or whether the case will be treated as in (A) below.
