REGISTRATION DEPARTMENT.

[Subject.—Presidency Administration Report for 1944–45—Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (Act VI of 1886) and allied Acts.]

No. C.-32.

From

SRI DIWAN BAHADUR H. KRISHNAMURTHI,

Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

EDUCATION AND PUBLIC HEALTH DEPARTMENT,

Fort St. George.

Dated Madras, the 18th April 1946.

SIR,

[Reference.—Memorandum No. 12415-C2/46-1-Education, dated 4th March 1946.]

I have the honour to submit my report on the working of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886, and the allied Acts in the Madras Province for the year 1944–45.

The Statistics of the operations connected therewith are exhibited in Appendices I to XII.

2. I held the office of Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages throughout the year.

Births and Deaths.

(Appendices I to III.)

3. (i) The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886.—The number of Registrars of Births and Deaths at the close of the year was 1,100 and of these, only 9 performed operations. The number of registrations of births and deaths fell from 26 and 12 in the previous year to 13 and 7 during the year under report. The small number of registrations is due to the fact that the registration of births and deaths under this Act is voluntary and intended for certain classes of persons only.

(ii) The Municipal Acts and Cantonment Act.—Registration under the local laws is compulsory but only copies of entries relating to Europeans and European British subjects are received by me. One hundred and sixty-nine births and 84 deaths were registered during the year as against 195 and 94 in the previous year.

(iii) The Madras Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1899.—Two births and 3 deaths relating to European British subjects were registered during the year as against 2 and 2 in the previous year.

Marriages.

(Appendices IV to VIII.)

4. (i) The Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872.—Returns received during the year accounted for 620 marriages of Europeans and Anglo-Indians and 17,094 marriages of Indian Christians. There were 905 persons licensed under the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, in the Madras Province at the close of the year, as against 860 in the previous year, and the marriage registers of 583 of them and the records of all Marriage Registrars were inspected during the year.

(ii) The Special Marriage Act, 1872.—The number of marriages registered under this Act rose from 148 to 172. Number of registrations was large in Madras, Malabar and Bangalore, and there was increase in registration in Trichinopoly, Tanjore, The Nilgiris and South Kanara. There was no registration in the districts of Nellore and Kurnool during the year. The increase in the number of registrations under this Act indicates that the communities to which the Act is applicable are gradually realizing the advantages of the measure as amended by Act XXX of 1923.

(iii) The Parsi Marriage and Divorce Act, 1936.—Two marriages as against 6 in the previous year were registered.

(iv) The Malabar Marriage Act, 1896.—There were no operations or any other transaction under the Act.

Baptisms and Burials.

(Appendices IX and X.)

5. The number of baptisms and burials of Europeans and Anglo-Indians in regard to which returns were received from the churches (except the Roman Catholic Churches) for transmission to England, was 523 and 481 as against 443 and 441 in the previous year.

General.

6. (i) Revised instructions were issued during the year by the Government regarding the registration of births and deaths of Anglo-Indians, who are not European British subjects as defined in clause I of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Memorandum No. 16956/44–10 H.P.H., Education and Public Health, dated 10th January 1945).

(ii) The deaths of French nationals were ordered during the year to be reported by the Registrar-General to the nearest French Consul [G.O. Ms. No. 3083, Public (War), dated 20th October 1944].

(iii) The counterfoil entries of deaths of 7 foreigners, i.e., 6 French and 1 American were received by me during the year from the municipalities, and copies of the same were forwarded by me to the Consular Officers concerned.

Financial Results.

(Appendices XI and XII.)

7. The receipts rose from Rs. 1,780 to Rs. 2,088 and the expenditure rose from Rs. 4,206 to Rs. 4,246. The increase under receipts was due to fees collected and credited by official Marriage Registrars in the Madras Province and the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

Miscellaneous.

8. The records of my office were checked during the year and an inventory of valuable stock is maintained and service books have been duly verified.

9. Statistics for the first year of the war (1939–40) are also furnished for purposes of comparison.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
H. KRISHNAMURTHI,
Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

SIR,

[Reference.—Memorandum No. 12415-C2/46-1-Education, dated 4th March 1946.]

I have the honour to submit my report on the working of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 and the allied Acts in the Madras Province for the year 1944–45.

The Statistics of the operations connected therewith are exhibited in Appendices I to XII.

2. I held the office of Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages throughout the year.

Births and Deaths.

(Appendices I to III.)

3 (i) The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886.—The number of Registrars of Births and Deaths at the close of the year was 1,100 and of these, only 9 performed operations. The number of registrations of births and deaths fell from 26 and 12 in the previous year to 13 and 7 during the year under report. The small number of registrations is due to the fact that the registration of births and deaths under this Act is voluntary and intended for certain classes of persons only.

(ii) The Municipal Acts and Cantonment Act.—Registration under the local laws is compulsory but only copies of entries relating to Europeans and European British subjects are received by me. One hundred and sixty-nine births and 84 deaths were registered during the year as against 195 and 94 in the previous year.

(iii) The Madras Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1899.—Two births and 3 deaths relating to European British subjects were registered during the year as against 2 and 2 in the previous year.

Marriages.

(Appendices IV to VIII.)

4 (i) The Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872.—Returns received during the year accounted for 620 marriages of Europeans and Anglo-Indians and 17,094 marriages of Indian Christians. There were 905 persons licensed under the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, in the Madras Province at the close of the year, as against 860 in the previous year, and the marriage registers of 583 of them and the records of all Marriage Registrars were inspected during the year.

(ii) The Special Marriage Act, 1872.—The number of marriages registered under this Act rose from 148 to 172. Number of registrations was large in Madras, Malabar and Bangalore, and there was increase in registration in Trichinopoly, Tanjore, The Nilgiris, and South Kanara. There was no registration in the districts of Nellore and Kurnool during the year. The increase in the number of registrations under this Act indicates that the communities to which the Act is applicable are gradually realizing the advantages of the measure as amended by Act XXX of 1923.

(iii) The Parsi Marriage and Divorce Act, 1936.—Two marriages as against 6 in the previous year were registered.

(iv) The Malabar Marriage Act, 1896.—There were no operations or any other transaction under the Act.

Baptisms and Burials.

(Appendices IX and X.)

5. The number of baptisms and burials of Europeans and Anglo-Indians in regard to which returns were received from the churches (except the Roman Catholic Churches) for transmission to England, was 523 and 481 as against 443 and 441 in the previous year.

General.

6 (i) Revised instructions were issued during the year by the Government regarding the registration of births and deaths of Anglo-Indians, who are not European British subjects as defined in clause I of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Memorandum No. 16956/44–10 H.P.H., Education and Public Health, dated 10th January 1945).

(ii) The deaths of French nationals were ordered during the year to be reported by the Registrar-General to the nearest French Consul (G.O. Ms. No. 3083, Public (War), dated 20th October 1944).

(iii) The counterfoil entries of deaths of 7 foreigners, i.e., 6 French and 1 American were received by me during the year from the municipalities, and copies of the same were forwarded by me to the Consular Officers concerned.

Financial Results.

(Appendices XI and XII.)

7. The receipts rose from Rs. 1,780 to Rs. 2,088 and the expenditure rose from Rs. 4,206 to Rs. 4,246. The increase under receipts was due to fees collected and credited by official Marriage Registrars in the Madras Province and the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

Miscellaneous.

8. The records of my office were checked during the year and an inventory of valuable stock is maintained and service books have been duly verified.

9. Statistics for the first year of the war (1939–40) are also furnished for purposes of comparison.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages.

REGISTRATION DEPARTMENT.

[Subject.—Presidency Administration Report for 1944–45—Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 (Act VI of 1886) and allied Acts.]

No. C.-32.

From

SRI DIWAN BAHADUR H. KRISHNAMURTHI,

Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

EDUCATION AND PUBLIC HEALTH DEPARTMENT,

Fort St. George.

Dated Madras, the 18th April 1946.

SIR,

[Reference.—Memorandum No. 12415-C2/46-1-Education, dated 4th March 1946.]

I have the honour to submit my report on the working of the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886 and the allied Acts in the Madras Province for the year 1944–45.

The Statistics of the operations connected therewith are exhibited in Appendices I to XII.

2. I held the office of Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages throughout the year.

Births and Deaths.

(Appendices I to III.)

3 (i) The Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act, 1886.—The number of Registrars of Births and Deaths at the close of the year was 1,100 and of these, only 9 performed operations. The number of registrations of births and deaths fell from 26 and 12 in the previous year to 13 and 7 during the year under report. The small number of registrations is due to the fact that the registration of births and deaths under this Act is voluntary and intended for certain classes of persons only.

(ii) The Municipal Acts and Cantonment Act.—Registration under the local laws is compulsory but only copies of entries relating to Europeans and European British subjects are received by me. One hundred and sixty-nine births and 84 deaths were registered during the year as against 195 and 94 in the previous year.

(iii) The Madras Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 1899.—Two births and 3 deaths relating to European British subjects were registered during the year as against 2 and 2 in the previous year.

Marriages.

(Appendices IV to VIII.)

4 (i) The Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872.—Returns received during the year accounted for 620 marriages of Europeans and Anglo-Indians and 17,094 marriages of Indian Christians. There were 905 persons licensed under the Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872, in the Madras Province at the close of the year, as against 860 in the previous year, and the marriage registers of 583 of them and the records of all Marriage Registrars were inspected during the year.

(ii) The Special Marriage Act, 1872.—The number of marriages registered under this Act rose from 148 to 172. Number of registrations was large in Madras, Malabar and Bangalore, and there was increase in registration in Trichinopoly, Tanjore, The Nilgiris, and South Kanara. There was no registration in the districts of Nellore and Kurnool during the year. The increase in the number of registrations under this Act indicates that the communities to which the Act is applicable are gradually realizing the advantages of the measure as amended by Act XXX of 1923.

(iii) The Parsi Marriage and Divorce Act, 1936.—Two marriages as against 6 in the previous year were registered.

(iv) The Malabar Marriage Act, 1896.—There were no operations or any other transaction under the Act.

Baptisms and Burials.

(Appendices IX and X.)

5. The number of baptisms and burials of Europeans and Anglo-Indians in regard to which returns were received from the churches (except the Roman Catholic Churches) for transmission to England, was 523 and 481 as against 443 and 441 in the previous year.

General.

6 (i) Revised instructions were issued during the year by the Government regarding the registration of births and deaths of Anglo-Indians, who are not European British subjects as defined in clause I of sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Criminal Procedure Code (Memorandum No. 16956/44–10 H.P.H., Education and Public Health, dated 10th January 1945).

(ii) The deaths of French nationals were ordered during the year to be reported by the Registrar-General to the nearest French Consul [G.O. Ms. No. 3083, Public (War), dated 20th October 1944].

(iii) The counterfoil entries of deaths of 7 foreigners, i.e., 6 French and 1 American were received by me during the year from the municipalities, and copies of the same were forwarded by me to the Consular Officers concerned.

Financial Results.

(Appendices XI and XII.)

7. The receipts rose from Rs. 1,780 to Rs. 2,088 and the expenditure rose from Rs. 4,206 to Rs. 4,246. The increase under receipts was due to fees collected and credited by official Marriage Registrars in the Madras Province and the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

Miscellaneous.

8. The records of my office were checked during the year and an inventory of valuable stock is maintained and service books have been duly verified.

9. Statistics for the first year of the war (1939–40) are also furnished for purposes of comparison.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
H. KRISHNAMURTHI,
Registrar-General of Births, Deaths and Marriages.
