Sir,

I beg to submit the following appeal for kind consideration and favourable orders:--

06879

1. I am a permanent Junior Deputy Inspector of schools in the Madras Subordinate Educational Service. In August 1942, I was appointed by the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to officiate as Assistant Lecturer in Mathematics, Government College, Mangalore, under Rule 31 (a) of the General Rules for Provincial - and Subordinate Services (Emergency powers) as promotion from Junior Deputy Inspector to Assistant Lecturer is not permissible under Rule 12 of the Special Rules for the Madras Educational Subordinate Service.

2. While I was officiating as Assistant Lecturer, vacancies arose in the cadre of Senior Deputy Inspectors of Schools and I was not given the regular promotion to the cadre of Senior Deputy Inspectors on the ground that I was officiating in a higher post. Even as early as November 1942, many of my Juniors as for example, Sri. K. Krishnamachari, B.A.,L.T.,an Officer Junior to me by many places, were promoted as Senior Deputy Inspectors. Had I been promoted then, as Senior Deputy Inspector all my service as Assistant Lecturer subsequent to this promotion would have counted for my probation in the cadre of Senior Deputy Inspectors which I would have completed in November or December 1944. Thereby, I would have been eligible for regular promotion as Assistant -- Lecturer.

3. On the otherhand, I was reverted and actually posted as Senior Deputy Inspector, only in April 1943. I took charge as Senior Deputy Inspector of schools, Negapattam, on 8--4--43 as the original order transferring me to Saidapet was modified during my transit, just when I reported myself to duty at Saidapet. In July 1943, I was again transferred as Assistant Lecturer, Engineering College, Guindy, under Rule 31(a) (emergency powers) I am still officiating as Assistant Lecturer under rule 31 (a) with a reversion to the Senior Deputy Inspector's post during the summer vacation every year since 1943. My total service as Assistant Lecturer comes to 22 months till 31--3--45.

4. Had I beem promoted to the cadre of Senior Deputy Inspectors when my Juniors in the cadre of Junior Deputy Inspectors were promoted I would have completed probation as Senior Deputy Inspector earlier than 31--12--1944 at any rate and would have been eligible for regular promotion as Assistant Lecturer. I represented the facts to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, in June 1944 He has, declared my claim inadmissible under rule 8(e) of the -- General Rules for Provincial and Subordinate Services in his R.Dis. No. 1467/C/44 dated 29--6--1944.

5. In these circumstances, I pray that I may be exempted as a Special case from the operation of Rule 12 of the Special rules for the Madras Educational Subordinate Service and that my promotion to the assistant Lecturers' cadre be regularised so that a reversion during the ensuing Summer vacation beginning from 3rd April 1945 may be avoided. If this is not granted, it would look as though my selection for the higher post of Assistant Lecturer by the Director of Public Instruction at a time when my juniors were awaiting promotion has affected me adversely for no fault of mine.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

In reply to Government Memorandum No.6879-C/45, 3. Edn., dated 9-9-1945, I have the honour to state as follows:--

Sri A.T.B. Saravanaswami, Junior Deputy Inspector who was qualified for promotion as Assistant Lecturer was appointed as Assistant Lecturer in Mathematics, Government College, Mangalore with effect from 7-9-1942 under Rule 31 (a) of the General Rules for Provincial and Subordinate services as the Junior Deputy Inspectors are not eligible for promotion to the category of Assistant Lecturers - Vide Rule 2(a) of the Special Rules for Subordinate Educational Service. He held that post till the end of March 1943 and thereafter he was reverted as Junior Deputy Inspector of Schools. During this period, a short leave vacancy of School Assistant of one months' duration arose in the Government Training School, Ranipet and a junior of his Sri K. Krishnamachari, Junior Deputy Inspector of Schools acted in that post from 11-11-42 to 10-12-42 and thereafter reverted as a Junior Deputy Inspector of Schools. As the vacancy was short and as Sri A.T.B. Saravanaswami was on other duty he was not appointed to the vacancy. Even if he had been given paper appointment he should have put in two years period of probation on his reversion to that post - Vide Rule 8 (C) of the General Rules for Provincial and Subordinate Services. He was promoted as Deputy Inspector of Schools with effect from 8-4-1943. While he was a probationer in the category of Deputy Inspectors he was promoted as Assistant Lecturer in the College of Engineering, Guindy under Rule 31 (a) of the General Rules for Provincial and Subordinate Services. He served in this post from 22-7-1943 to 17-11-43 and thereafter reverted as Deputy Inspector of Schools for want of a vacancy. Again he was promoted as Assistant Lecturer in the Government Victoria College, Palghat under emergency powers where he worked from 17-1-44 to 3-4-44 when he was reverted as Deputy Inspector of Schools as there was no necessity for continuing the emergency appointment during the vacation. He has been continuously officiating in the Collegiate branch from 7-7-1944. As he completed his probation in the category of Deputy Inspector

The turn for Sri A.T.B. Saravanaswami for promotion to the cadre of Senior Deputy Inspectors came only on 11-11-42. As he was then officiating as Assistant Lecturer, a Junior of his Sri K. Krishnamachari, officiated from 11-11-42 to 10-12-42 and thereafter reverted for want of a vacancy. Another vacancy arose on 22-2-1943. As Mr. Saravanaswami was officiating in the Collegiate Service his junior Mr. K. Krishnamachari was appointed. From 22-2-1943 onwards the vacancy was continuous. Mr. Saravanaswami was appointed as Deputy Inspector with effect from 8-4-43. He could have acted as Deputy Inspector of Schools in his turn on the following dates: --

Sri A.T.B. Saravanaswami should have been promoted as Sr.Dy.Inspr. of Schools from 11-11-1942. From the same date he should also have been promoted as Asst. Lecturer in accordance with the rules, since for such promotion he need not necessarily have completed his probation as Sr.Dy.Inspr., as the latter post is not one in which he was 'apptd. to the service' within the meaning of rule 30(a) of the general rules relating to the Provl. and Subordinate Services. He could then have counted his service from 11-11-1942

The D.P.I. is now requested to issue revised orders appointing Sri Saravanaswami as Sr. Dy. Inspr. of Schools and also as Asst. It is not clear on what authority the statt. at ① on p.3 c. is based. That petr. was only a probr. and not an approved probr. in the category of Dy. Inspr. was no bar to his promotion as Asst. A For one thing, this relief is still left hypothetical: for another, it does not seem to meet the main points that by acting in the emergency appointment he lost his turn for promotion as Senior Deputy Inspector, lost seniority there, and lost the chance of counting service as Asst. M.V.S. 7-8-45.

The position according to rules may be explained to the D.P.I. and he may be asked to offer his remarks on the points raised by the Secretary at A above. A revised draft memo is subd.

The D.P.I. has not adequately met the point raised in the memo on pp 9.10 cf. The point for consideration is whether there was any vacancy from September 1942 in the grade of Dy. Inspector in which he the petitioner could have been regularly promoted. There is also no information on the point whether any of his juniors ~~have been~~ was promoted since that date, whether ~~they~~ he ~~are~~ was senior to the petitioner in the grade of Dy. Sri A.T.B.Saravanaswamy is a permanent Jr.Dy.Inspr. of Schools, qualified for promotion as Sr.Dy.Inspr. He ~~was~~ is also qualified for promotion as Asst.Lecturer in Math. On 7-9-42 he was promoted as Asst.Lecturer, Govt. College, Mangalore, under rule 31(a) of the Genl. rules for Provl. and Subordinate Services and he continued to hold that post till 1-4-43. He was later promoted as Senior Dy.Inspr. and he joined that appt. on 8-4-43. He was again apptd. as Asst.Lecturer under General rule 31(a) from 22-7-43. He continued to officiate as Asst. Lecturer under emergency provisions since that time except for the summer vacation of every subsequent year during which periods he was reverted as Senior Dy.Inspr. He was not promoted as Asst.Lecturer regularly because he was not an approved probationer in the category of Sr.Dy.Insprs. from which promotion to the posts of Asst.Lecturers is admissible; Jr.Dy.Insprs. cannot be promoted regularly as Asst.Lecturers. The D.P.I. has reported that Sri Saravanaswami could have been promoted as Sr.Dy.Inspr. from 11-11-42 to 10-12-42 and from 22-2-43 onwards. But the reason why he was not ~~appointed so~~ so promoted till 8.4.43, is not clear. Even though Sri Saravanaswami was on other duty or had been temporarily promoted to ~~other~~ higher categories in the service, he was entitled for promotion in the regular line in his turn. The Dir. seems to have realised this only ~~on~~ before the summer vacation of 1943 (8-4-43). During the period from 11-11-42 to 8-4-43, as many as six of Sri Saravanaswami's juniors were promoted as Sr.Dy.Insprs. The Dir.'s action in this respect seems irregular. If Sri Saravanaswami had been appointed as Senior Dy.Inspr. on 11-11-42 he would have completed his probation of two years within a continuous period of three years in the category of Sr.Dy.Insprs. on 19-2-45. Then, he could have been appointed as Asst.Lecturer regularly from this date, instead of from 6-5-45 as has been done by the Dir. The position may be explained to the Dir. and he may be asked ~~to regularise the appt. from 19-2-45. Pub.(Ser.) may see.~~ to declare the petitioner as an approved probationer in the category of Senior Dy. Inspectors on 19-2-45 and to regularise his appt. as Asst. Lecturer from that date.

CHIEF SECRETARIAT

Public (Services) Department.

The typed note at pages 6-7 ante summarises the case. To have promoted the petitioner from 11-11-1942 as a Deputy Inspector of School (Senior scale) would have been the correct course and apparently this did not occur to the D.P.I. as the petitioner was on duty in a much higher post. There is no objection to rectifying the position and restoring the petitioner to the place which he would ~~occupy~~ have occupied had he been promoted on 11-11-1942.

As regards the date on which his service as Dy Inspector of Schools (Senior) would count for probation it is 8-4-1943, the date on which he began to discharge duties in that category for the first time--vide M on page 7 ante. From that date he is also eligible for promotion to the still higher category of Assistant Professors and Asst. Lecturers; he need not necessarily have completed his probation as Deputy Inspector of Schools (Senior Scale) as presumed by E.& P.H., as the latter post is not ~~the~~ one in which he was "appointed to the service" within the meaning of general rule 30(a). For the definition of 'appointed to a service' please see rule 2(1) in Part I of the Rules for the Madras Provl + Sub. Services.

I don't agree.

In G.O. No.Ms.1481 Edn., dated 29-7-46, Government have passed orders giving retrospective effect to my promotion both as Assistant Lecturer and as Senior Deputy Inspector of Schools from 11th November 1942. In the same G.O. the Director of Public Instruction, Madras was also requested to issue revised orders of appointment appointing me both as Assistant Lecturer and as Senior Deputy Inspector of Schools with effect from that date.

In this connection, I beg to submit that I was reverted during the following three periods after 11-11-42 from the post of Assistant Lecturer to that of Senior Deputy Inspector of -- Schools.

(a) 1-4-43 to 21-7-43.
(b) 18-11-43 to 16-1-44.
(c) 4-4-44 to 6-7-44.

The reversions were ordered on the ground that I was not eligible for promotion to the cadre of Assistant Lecturers without completing probation as Senior Deputy Inspector of Schools. In the G.O. Government have clarified that this ground is not correct.

I applied to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras for sanctioning me payment of Assistant Lecturer's pay for those periods of reversion also. The Director in his proceedings R.C.No.425-C3/46 dated 8-4-47 has rejected my claim as inadmissible.

I also beg to submit that during the periods (a) and (b) which were summer vacations, the posts of Assistant Lecturers from which I was reverted were kept vacant. My present pay in the revised scale of pay which came into force from 1-1-47 is also affected adversely by these reversions.

In these circumstances, I pray that Government be pleased to consider my claim favourably and sanction payment of Assistant Lecturer's pay for the periods of reversion also as otherwise it would mean that I am penalised for no fault of mine.

Copy of G.O. No. Ms. 1481 Education dated the 29th July, 1946.

Order. Sri A.T.B. Saravanaswami should have been promoted as Senior Deputy Inspector of Schools from 11th November, 1942. From the same date, he should also have been promoted as Assistant Lecturer in accordance with the rules, since for such promotion he need not necessarily have completed his probation as Senior Deputy Inspector, as the latter post is not one in which he was appointed to the service within the meaning of rule 30(a) of the General Rules relating to the Provincial and Subordinate Service. He could have counted his service from 11th November 1942 towards probation and seniority in the category of Senior Deputy Inspectors.

The Director of Public Instruction is now requested to issue revised orders appointing Sri Sarabanaswami as Senior Deputy Inspector of Schools and also as Assistant Lecturer, from 11th November, 1942 and further to declare him to have satisfactorily completed his probation in the category of Senior Deputy
