I enclose the letter dated 16th May 1946 from Rev. A.A. Martin to me about the sale of the property to which I replied offering a price of Rs. 10,600/-. My offer was accepted and in accordance with the terms of Rev. Martin's letter I sent him a cheque for Rs. 500/-. The accompanying letter from Rev. A.A. Martin may kindly be returned to me after orders are passed on this application.

Copy of letter dated 16th May 1946 from Rev. A.A. Martin, to Rao Bahadur K. Ananda Rao, M.A. Mount Ellis, Kodaikanal.

Dear Sir,

Your agent was here yesterday and asked me to write to you concerning the sale of "Lone Cottage."

I have an offer for Rs. 9,000. I am writing to day to you and a few others to say that I shall accept the highest offer of Rs. 9,000 or above that reaches me by 6 p.m. on May 21, 1946. If two offers of the same amount come within that time, I shall accept the first one I read.

The accepted offer must deposit with me Rs. 500 towards the purchase price, and I shall, give a contract to sell. If the sale is not consummated at the request of the person making the deposit, it will be forfeited to me.

The purchaser must pay for the stamped paper, and all other expenses of the sale. He must complete the payment for the property on delivery of the deed.

The deeds are with me at Clavarak,

Sir,

With reference to G.O.Ms.No.1482-Education dated 29.7.1946 under sanction of which I have purchased the immovable property known as "Lone Cottage", I beg to state that in the description of the property which I gave in my application for permission to purchase the same, there is an inaccuracy which came to my notice before the conclusion of the sale. The whole of the plot with R.S.
No.291 is not comprised in the property but only R.S.No.
291/1, while plot with R.S.No.357/2 which forms part of the property was omitted to be included in the description I gave in my application. The description of the property as rectified runs as follows:

All those five pieces or parcels of land with the dwelling house or bungalow and premises erected thereon situated in the village of Adukkumalai and Taluk of Kodaikanal in the Sub-Registration District of Periakulam
