Sir,

22 JUL 1946 Sub: Clothing-warm clothing-supply to the Demonstration Maistry stationed at Yercaud-sanction requested.

There is a Demonstration Maistry stationed at Yercaud, the hill station of Salem district. The weather conditions of this place are inclement for about 9 months in the year and chill during the remaining period. The Demonstration Maistry who is posted there has to work under varied climatic conditions. He is a poorly paid Government servant who cannot afford to provide himself with warm clothing of his own. The menials of other Departments stationed at Yercaud are provided with warm clothing. I therefore request that Government may be pleased to sanction the supply of warm clothing consisting of one blue serge suit and one cumby to the Agricultural Demonstration Maistry stationed at Yercaud.
