31 JUL 1946
Dated 31 JUL 1946 1946

On the invitation of the Patna University the Indian History Congress will hold its ninth session in the last week of December 1946, under the presidency of Professor K.A. Nilakanta Sastri, M.A., Professor of History, Madras University, Madras.

42054 The Indian History Congress Association is registered under the Societies Registration Act of 1860. Its membership is open to all persons interested in the study of Indian History. The members are of two kinds- ordinary members who pay a fee of Rs.10/- per annum and life members who pay Rs.100/-. Persons contributing Rs.500/- or more shall be deemed patrons and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership.

The Congress seeks to bring together scholars of Indian History and focus their attention on the main problems of research. It is divided into six sections: (1) Ancient India upto 711 A.D. (2) Ancient India from 711 to 1206 A.D. (3) Early Medieval India from 1206 to 1526 A.D. (4) Later Medieval India from 1526 to 1764 A.D. (5) Modern India and (6) Local History (Megadha)

The following scholars have been elected to preside over the respective sections:

- (1) Dr J.N. Banerjee, Calcutta University.
- (2) Dr N. Venkataramanayya, Madras University.
- (3) Shaikh Abdur Rashid, M.A., Aligarh Muslim University.
- (4) Dr H.N. Sinha, M.A., Ph.D., Prof. Nagpur University.
- (5) Dr S.C. Sircar, M.A., Ph.D., Retired Professor, Patna University.

I hope your government will, as in the previous years, nominate its representatives to attend the session of the Congress and take part in its deliberations. It is also hoped that your representatives will contribute papers for the sections in which they are interested. The membership fee for

INDIAN HISTORY CONGRESS for the delegates is Rs.10/- which may be remitted to
Dr. Banarsi Prasad Saksena, Ph.D., Treasurer, Indian History
Congress, History Department, Allahabad University, Allahabad.

The address of the Local Secretary is:
