Sir,

Museum-Government - "The Guide to the Archaeological Galleries" and "Illustrations of Indian Sculptures" - Reprinting.

Reference G.O.Ms.No.1505 Edn., dated 5th November 1943. I have the honour to state that the publications referred to above are much more than a mere guide for the exhibits in the galleries. They are books for study and as an introduction to the Study of Indian Sculpture and architecture have commanded good sale and are very popular. Explaining as they do the characteristics of all schools of Indian sculptures they meet a real need. The Guide to the Archaeological Galleries was reprinted and 200 copies were supplied in July 1944 and after a period of 18 months a balance of only 30 copies are left. The copies of "Illustrations of Indian Sculptures" have been practically sold out, only 3 copies being left in stock. There is great demand for these two books from visitors and scholars

scholars from other Provinces and abroad. In the circumstances it is essential that these books should be reprinted and copies made available to the public and scholars. In view of the fact that restriction on paper has been relaxed, I have the honour to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the printing of 400 copies each of these books. A copy each of the book is sent herewith for reference and return.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A. Aiyappan
Superintendent. 12.1.46
