R.C.No. 3162-F1/46 dated 14th August 1946.

Sir,

Travelling Allowance--Sanction of Travelling Allowance for family of the Deputy Inspector of Schools, Remnad Muhammadan Range--Orders requesting.

The Deputy Inspector of Schools, Remnad Muhammadan Range who was transferred from Madras to Madura in April 1946 took charge of his post at Madura on 2.5.1946 and claimed Travelling Allowance for himself only on 1.8.1946. On 7.1.1946, he brought his family (wife and child) from Madras and claimed Travelling Allowance on their behalf. Since he did not bring his family within 3 months after his joining duty at Remnad as required by Rule 71 of the Madras Travelling Allowance Rules, the District Educational Officer, Remnad did not pass the Travelling Allowance Bill on behalf of his family. The Deputy Inspector of Schools, now reports that he was prevented from bringing his family within the time limit prescribed in the Rules owing to the extreme difficulty of getting houses at Madura and that he brought his family in January 1946 when he was able to secure a house. Under these circumstances, he requests that the delay in bringing the family may be condoned and that the Travelling Allowance Bill for Rs. 18.11.0 on behalf of his family passed.

As the difficulty in securing houses at Madura Town is genuine, and as the delay is due to reasons beyond the control of the Government servant, I have the honour to recommend to Government that the delay in bringing the family of the Government servant may be condoned as a special case and Travelling Allowance sanctioned on their behalf.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

M. Ramanaiah
