With reference to para 1 of the G.O. cited above,

 Schools, Coimbatore, discussed the matter with the Secretary of the Ramakrishna Vidyalaya, Perianaikampalayam and the latter has agreed to lend the building and equipment to the Government free of rent. But the Secretary desired that any temporary building put upon the premises by the Government and any equipment supplied to the school during the period it is under Government control might be allowed to be retained by the Vidyalaya should the Government at any time decide to abolish the special training school. It is recommended that the offer may be accepted and the request

Sir,

Change of name.

Ref:- Government Telephonic message (post copy), dated nil (received on 24-3-1947).

With reference to the Telephonic message quoted above, I have the honour to state that the Government Basic Training School, Perianaickenpalayam has taken the place of the Gandhi Training School, Perianaickenpalayam.

It is reported that the Ramakrishna Mission is maintaining two institutions at Perianaickenpalayam, a high school, named "Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalam" and a Higher Elementary school named "T.A.T. Kalanilayam".

With regard to the request of the management for the change of name, it is submitted that to retain the name, "Ramakrishna Mission" for a government institution will mislead the public and it will also be inappropriate. However, it is suggested that in order to satisfy the sentiments of the old management, the name of the Basic Training school may be changed into "Government Gandhi Basic Training School".

At Periyanaickenpalayam the Ramakrishna Mission has been maintaining a Training School under the name of "Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya Gandhi Training School." In connection with the introduction of basic education in this province the Govt decided to open a basic training school for the Tamil districts. The school was ordered to be located in the premises of the Gandhi Training School at Periyanaickenpalayam. The management agreed to permit the location of the Govt Basic Training School in the premises of the Gandhi Training School, free of rent but imposed a condition that any temporary structures ~~erected~~ erected for the Govt Basic Training School and the equipment supplied to it should be handed over to the management free of cost in case the Govt decide to close their school. The condition was accepted by Govt.

From the Correspondence in the C.F. it is observed that the Gandhi Training School has ^{actually} been taken over by Govt and is being maintained as a Govt institution, (Contrary to the orders of Govt). The School after coming under the Govt. management is being called as the "Govt Basic Training School." but the management desires to retain the old name. In order to satisfy the sentiments of the old management, the D.P.G suggests that the name of the Basic Training School may be changed into "Govt Gandhi Basic Training School." (Govt.)
