I beg to bring to your kind notice that I feel too weak to undertake the duties of my office that my doctor Dr.C.V. Subba Rao L.M.S of this town considers that rest at least for a few weeks is necessary for preventing my nervous break down and that I wish to be with my wife who is ill at Madras for some time.

I joined service in October 1918 was confirmed in August 1920 and am due to retire in March 1947. I availed myself of 3 month's sick leave in 1929. I have taken no other leave so far. I therefore request you to kindly sanction privilege leave on average salary for one month with immediate effect or any other leave for one month to which I may be entitled with permission to avail myself of the leave at 47, Gengu Reddi Street, Egmore, Madras.
