Copy of letter from Sri D. Namasivayan dated 1st October 1946.

In continuation of my leave application dated 22-9-1946 submitted through the Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet, I submit that because I am actually faced with real difficulties that I have applied for leave out of necessity knowing that practically all of it will be on half average pay. In these circumstances I trust that my leave application will receive the greatest sympathy of the Director.

Application dated 22-9-1946 from Sri D. Namasiveyam.

Ref:- Proceedings R.C.No.7103 C1/46,1, dated 19-9-1946 of the Director of Public Instruction, appointing me as Principal and Senior Lecturer, Government Arts College, Rajahmundry.

The Proceedings under reference was received by me on 20-9-1946 with the Principal's endorsement asking me to hand over charge to my successor on the same day. Even though I was unwell during that week I went to the College as expeditiously as possible, ignoring my indisposition, and handed over charge on 20-9-1946 afternoon in spite of personal inconvenience.

Not having had any time on receipt of transfer order to consider about the possibility of shifting my household and family within the brief joining time left before me, I have, after handing over charge as mentioned above, thought over the matter in question very carefully in all its aspects. Even though quite willing to join the new post as soon as possible, I am now compelled, much to my regret, to apply for a short leave in view of the circumstances stated below.

My family circumstances at present are such that my wife and baby are not in a position either to be removed from here before some time to come or to be left alone here to shift for themselves without my help. I therefore need time in order to move with my family vacating my present house in Madras.

Consequent on aforesaid private difficulties in the recent months, I was appreciably upset in health. Further I was unwell during last week. Having handed over charge at the commencement of the Michaelmas holidays I have no opportunity to take real rest. I do not feel equal to the arduous task of shifting from this place on transfer at once.

In the light of the circumstances stated above, mainly domestic and partly personal, I request that the Director may be good enough to grant me leave on full average pay to the extent available combined with leave on half average pay to the extent necessary from 21-9-1946 to 17-12-1946 with permission to suffix the Christmas holidays from 18-12-1946 to 2-1-1947.

Since I am already relieved from my present post, I further request that the Director may be kind enough to consider me as availing the leave in anticipation of sanction.

As stated already I am quite willing to join my new post on the expiry of this leave which will afford me the necessary time for making the required arrangements.

In conclusion, I thank the Director of Public Instruction in anticipation
