The linked file deals with a similar question on the re-organisation of Edu. Perhaps the M. L. A. may be referred to the answer given to that question

2. The draft answer is for consideration :-

The Hon. the Member is referred to the answer to the question no. 10.

Reorganization of education in the Province of Madras.

* 46 (105) Q.—H. S. HUSSAIN SAHIB BAHADUR: Will the
Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) whether the Government have decided to undertake the reorganization of education in the Province; and

(b) if the answer to (a) above is in the affirmative, what steps the Government propose to take in that direction?

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“(a) & (b) Yes. A questionnaire is being prepared to invite public opinion on various matters requiring reorganization.”

ABDUL HAMEED KHAN SAHIB BAHADUR:—“Has the questionnaire just mentioned by the Hon. Minister seen the light of day?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“I do not understand what is meant by ‘light of day’. I said the questionnaire was being prepared and when it is published I hope the eyes of the hon. Member will be set upon it.”

ABDUL HAMEED KHAN SAHIB BAHADUR:—“You want some more light?”

MUHAMMAD ABDUL SALAM SAHIB BAHADUR:—“While the questionnaire is prepared will the Hon. Minister give an assurance that nothing will be done in the matter of reorganization before giving an opportunity to this House to discuss the matter.”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“I do not agree that on every little administrative detail we should get the opinion of this House. But on broad principles which have not been accepted by educational authorities such as for instance whether graduates should be asked to do teaching work for three months before they are given their degrees, the Government will place the matter before the House and take their opinion before coming to a decision, but no Government can undertake that every administrative action that will be taken by it will be placed before the House for its decision.”

MUHAMMAD ABDUL SALAM SAHIB BAHADUR:—“I ask for an assurance that in the matter of the basic language nothing will be done by the Government without consulting this House.”

ABDUL HAMEED KHAN SAHIB BAHADUR:—“I do not understand what he means by basic language. Is the Hon. Minister aware that there are demands from various communities that the matter of the reorganization of education should be in accordance with their own requirements and unless he consults them and gets their consent he should not take any steps in that matter?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“I am not able to answer a general question like this. If the hon. Member specifies any particular point on which he wants information I will be able to answer the question.”

ABDUL HAMEED KHAN SAHIB BAHADUR:—“The question is with regard to the regional languages about which the Hon. Minister has been speaking elsewhere. May I know whether he realises that his scheme of regional languages adversely affects a particular community whose language is Urdu?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“No, Sir.”

SRI P. VENKATESWARLU:—“Do the Government propose to take over the management of aided schools under private management and introduce compulsory primary education in those areas?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“It does not arise out of this question.”

K. M. SEETHI SAHIB BAHADUR:—“Will the Government publish their proposals regarding reorganization of education for public criticism before passing final orders on them?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“We will do one better. We will publish these points of reorganization and take public opinion before passing orders.”

MUHAMMAD ABDUL SALAM SAHIB BAHADUR:—“Has the Hon. Minister for Education read the reply given by the Hon. the Premier with regard to the medium of instruction the day before yesterday and has he anything to say with regard to that matter?”

THE HON. SRI T. S. AVINASHILINGAM CHETTIYAR:—
“I am absolutely at one with the Hon. the Premier.”
