Copy of letter dated 5th August 1946 from Mrs. M.L. Small, Superintendent, Govt. Secondary Training school for women, Vellore to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

As my eyes need attention I wish to go on leave to undergo treatment. I should be much obliged if you would be so good as to arrange for a medical Committee to examine my case and to permit me to appear before the medical Committee.

A certificate from the Consulting Opthamologist, Vellore Medical College recommending four months leave is enclosed. I should be -- grateful if you could arrange for me to be relieved as soon as possible as I find it very hard to carry on my work with my eyes in such a condition.
