Re.1475 C/46 dated 2-8-1946

Sir,

Miss A.S.Devadasan, School Assistant, Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras - grant of special allowance.

42336

Consequent on the promotion of Mrs. U. Devaki Damodaran Assistant Lecturer in History, Queen Mary's College for Women, Madras, as Lecturer in History in the same College in the Madras Educational Service, a vacancy in the post of Assistant Lecturer in History in the Subordinate Educational Service has arisen. Miss A.S.Devadasan, M.A.(Hons), (His), II Class, L.T. School Assistant Lady Willingdon Training College is a probationer in the category of Assistant Lecturers and the periods during which she officiated as Assistant Lecturer in History are noted below:-

	y.	m.	d.
(1) 13-10-39 to 8-12-39	=	0	1 26
(2) 25-7-40 to 2-1-41	=	0	5 9
(3) 5-7-44 to 8-12-45.	=	1	5 4
Total.		2	0 9

In the normal course, she should be promoted as Assistant Lecturer in History in the Queen Mary's College in place of Mrs. U. Devaki Damodaran, but Miss Gerrard, Principal, Lady Willingdon Training College, is very anxious to keep her in her College because there is no one else in the Lady Willingdon Training College, who can teach Methods of teaching Geography to the B.T.Class. Miss Gerrard will also be proceeding on leave from October next. Miss Devadasan possesses a Diploma in Geography awarded by the Madras University.

2. In the circumstances stated above, I intend appointing a candidate as Assistant Lecturer in History in the Queen Mary's College under emergency powers and to retain Miss A.S.Devadasan in her present post of School Assistant in the Lady Willingdon Training College. The substantive pay of Miss A.S.Devadasan is Rs.150/- and she will get an officiating allowance of Rs.10/- if she is promoted as Assistant Lecturer. As her retention in the Lady Willingdon Training College is in the exigencies of public service and, as this will result in her losing Rs.10/- p.m. I recommend that she may be granted a special allowance of Rs.10/- p.m. from the date of relief of Mrs. U.Devaki Damodaran upto 30-6-47. I may mention, in this connection that proposals for raising the status of the post of Geography Assistant held by Miss A.S.Devadasan in the Lady Willingdon Training College will be submitted to Government as a Part II scheme.

Sir,

Allowance--Miss A.S.Devadassan, School Assistant, Lady Willington Training College--Grant of special allowance.

With reference to Government Memorandum No.43336-A/46-2 Education dated 16.9.1946 I have the honour to state that there is no qualified school Assistant in the Government schools holding a diploma in Geography except one Mrs.R.Saraswathi who is only a music graduate. She was employed as School Assistant in the Lady Willington Training College. She has been on leave from 21.8.1945 and has applied for an extension of leave till 30.4.1947. She is a permanent Secondary grade teacher. Miss Gerrard, and the Principal who is handling Geography will proceed on leave preparatory to retirement with effect from 7.10.1946. If Miss A.S.Devadassan is also transferred from the Lady Willington Training College, the Geography work will come to a stand still. In the circumstances,

Miss A. S. Devadassan cannot be spared from the college.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Please see the letter from the D.P.G. in the C.F. and the Draft order put up by ~~Dr~~ E.H.H. overleaf. Miss Devadasan is a School Assistant in the Lady Wellington College, Madras drawing a substantive pay of Rs 150 p.m. and as probationer in the category of Assistant Lecturer in History. A vacancy of Asst. Lecturer in History in Queen Mary's College has ^{arisen} occurred from 3.8.46 to which Miss Devadasan ^{in person} has to be normally promoted. But as there is no one else in the Lady Wellington College who can teach methods in Geography, the D.P.G. prefers to retain Miss Devadasan ^{in Queen Mary's College} as School Assistant ^{and appoint a new Asst. Lecturer under emergency provision} and proposes to allow Miss Devadasan a special allowance of Rs 10 p.m. equivalent to the officiating allowance she would have got had she been promoted as Asst. Lecturer.

9-3-47

It is quite probable that there may be qualified school assistants ^{holding diploma in Geography in other schools}. The D.P.G. does not say whether there is is not any possibility of transferring any ^{such} School Assistant holding diploma in Geography from other Govt. schools or Colleges to the Lady Wellington Training College in the place of Miss Devadasan and to allow her to get promoted as Asst. Lecturer in Queen Mary's College. The proposal of the D.P.G. will mean that a special pay will have to be given to Miss Devadasan without any additional duties or work of higher responsibility to perform but merely as an inducement to make her remain in the Lady Wellington College. This does not seem to be a sufficient justification for giving a special pay. In the circumstances this dept may strongly advise against the proposal. Anyhow the information referred to at 'A' in p 3 above may first be obtained from the D.P. 9 if it is considered that the case should be examined further.

With the above remarks the Case may be returned to E.H.H.

Information as to 'A' and B3 anti was given be obtained. I do not think this plan of indispensables should be encouraged in Public Services.
 Naval provisions should not be stopped on this plan to be given as compensation against such stoppage.

Sir,
 Subject:- Miss A.S. Devadasan, Lady Willingdon Training College, Retention.

Ref:- G.O.No.Ms.2125 Education, dated 8-11-1946.

I have the honour to state that the transfer of Miss A.S.
 Devadasan from the Lady Willingdon Training College at this part of the year will completely dislocate the work in the B.T. Class where there are 12 students who have taken geography as a special subject. In these special circumstances I have not ordered her transfer to the Queen Mary's College and I request that Government may be pleased to reconsider the orders passed in G.O.No.Ms.2125, Education, dated 8-11-1946 and issue urgent orders sanctioning the post of an Assistant Lecturer as already referred in my letter Roc.No.4682 K2/46, dated 9-11-1946 with a view to retaining Miss A.S.
 Devadasan in the Lady Willingdon Training College, itself. There is no qualified person who can handle geography in the department and her retention in the College is therefore essential.

I have the honour to be,
 Sir,
