M.E.S. - Women's branch - Proposals for the posting of substitutes in a vacancy of Mrs. M. Lakshmi Ammal, Lecturer in English in the Queen Mary College and in the leave vacancy of Mrs. S. Hilda Raj, Lecturer in English, Lady Willingdon Training College - Submitting.

I have the honour to submit for the favourable consideration of Government the following proposals for the posting of substitutes in the vacancy of Mrs. M. Lakshmi Ammal, Lecturer in English, Queen Mary's College, consequent on her appointment as Principal, Lady Willingdon Training College, and in the vacancy that will arise on account of the grant of extraordinary leave for six months from 1.11.46 to Mrs. S. Hilda Raj, Lecturer in English, Lady Willingdon Training College, Madras.

2. In my letter Cl. 2WB/46 dated 4.4.1946 I have recommended the names of Mrs. G. Parthasarathi, officiating Assistant Lecturer in English in the Queen Mary's College, and Miss. Ahalya Bai, permanent School Assistant in the Lady Willingdon Training College, for inclusion in the list of officers considered suitable for promotion to the M.E. S. These two ladies are qualified to hold the posts of Lecturers in English in the M.E.S. In this connection I may point out that the University of Madras have raised an objection to Mrs. N. Shanmugasundaram being the Head of the Department of English in the Government College for Muslim Women, Royapettah, as her experience in teaching is not considered sufficient. Therefore, I propose to transfer Mrs. Shanmugasundaram to the Queen Mary's College in the vacancy of Mrs. M. Lakshmi Ammal. I recommend that the resultant vacancy at the Government college for Muslim women, Royapettah may be filled by the appointment of Mrs. G. Parthasarathi and that Miss Ahalya Bai appointed to the leave vacancy of Mrs. S. Hilda Raj. In view of her previous experience in the College, Miss. Ahalya Bai would be most suitable in the Lady Willingdon Training College. Pending the inclusion of the names of these two officers in the list of officers considered suitable for promotion to the M.E.S., the above appointments may be ordered under emergency powers.

Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

To

Secretary to Government, Education & Public Health Department.

Sir,

M.E.S. -- Women's branch -- Retention of Mrs. G.
Parthasarathy as Lecturer in the Queen Mary's College -- requested.

Ref: G.O.No.Ms.2133 Education dated 9.11.1946.

In their order referred to above, government were pleased to appoint Mrs. G. Parthasarathy officiating Assistant Lecturer, Queen Mary's College as officiating Lecturer Government college for Muslim women.

The Principal, Queen Mary's college represents that the English department of the college has suffered ~~that~~ much on account of too many changes on the staff during the current year viz., Miss Myers retired from service; Miss M. Lakshmi Ammal left the College on transfer as Principal, Lady Willingdon Training college. She therefore requests that Mrs. G. Parthasarathy a member of the English Department of the College should not be disturbed at this part of the year but allowed to continue. The services of Mrs.
G. Parthasarathy are stated to be most essential for the college now as she has to carry on the important work of preparing II year and IV year students for the Selection Examination in December 1946 and for the university examination in March 1947.

In the interests of continuity of work and in the circumstances stated by the Principal, Queen Mary's college, I recommend that Mrs. G. Parthasarathy may be retained as Lecturer in the Queen Mary's College. Mrs. N. Shanmughasundaram can also be retained in the Government Muslim College for women, Madras for the present. I may add that I addressed the Vice-Chancellor of the University to allow Mrs. Shanmugasundaram to continue in the College till the next academic year and he has told me personally that he agrees with me that it would be best to retain Mrs. Parthesarathi on her present post and that he would place my letter before the Syndicate.

I request the favour of urgent orders on this reference
