Ref. No.

Dated 11th Oct. 1946

Dear Sir,

The honourable Prime Minister, Pandit N. S. Shukla and Mr. Justice Farnic, the Vice Chancellor of the Nagpur University have sent to you an invitation to be present at a meeting to be held on the 18th instant at Nagpur to help in the great task of providing text books in technical subjects which are to be taught through the medium of the mother tongue. I have been requested by them to help them in the matter and to acquaint you with the work that has been carried on by me and my associates in this direction. Two volumes of our work, The Great English-Indian Dictionary, have already appeared in print. The technical words are printed in Devanagari, Bengali for Northern India and Tamil, Kannada for Southern India. The words are such as would prove useful to all the Aryan and Dravidian languages of India which derive their inspiration from Sanskrit and which use Sanskrit roots, reflexes and suffixes in the formation of the terminology. A folder describing the Dictionary is being

Yours Sincerely,
