MADRAS EDUCATIONAL SUBORDINATE SERVICE - Women Secondary

Grade Trained Teachers - Minimum general educational qualification - Not to be insisted on till 31st March 1948.

Read:

G.O.No.Ms.823 Edn., dated 27-5-44.

From the Director of Public Instruction, C.No.8897-C2/46 dated the 11th October 1946.

ORDER MS.NO.225⁶ EDUCATION, dated 23/11 1946.

With reference to para 2 of G.O.Ms.No.823 Education, dated the 27th May 1944, the Director of Public Instruction has submitted a list of women secondary grade trained teachers, who appointed to the Madras Educational Subordinate Service during 1944-and 1945. From the list it is observed that women teachers, who have undergone secondary grade training and who also possess the minimum general educational qualification prescribed in the general rules for for Provincial and Subordinate Services, are still not available in sufficient number for appointment to the Madras Educational Subordinate Service. The Government, therefore, consider that the general educational qualification referred to above need not be insisted on for another two years, i.e., up to the 31st March 1948.

2. The Director is requested to see that special efforts are taken to recruit candidates possessing the qualification in question for vacancies that may occur in future. He is also requested to submit to Government early in 1948 a list of women secondary grade teachers appointed in each of the years 1946 and 1947 and their qualifications.

MADRAS EDUCATIONAL SUBORDINATE SERVICE - Secondary grade teachers - Minimum general educational qualification - Applicability.

From the Director of Public Instruction, B.No.8897-02/46 dated the 11th October 1946.

Women secondary grade trained teachers are exempt from the possession of the minimum general educational qualification laid down in the General Rules for Provincial and Subordinate Services. When this exemption was first sanctioned the idea was that it should be temporary and that the necessity for continuing it should be reviewed from time to time. The sanction last given in G.O.No.Ms.823 Education, dated the 27th May 1944 expired on 1st April 1946. From the details furnished by the Director of Public Instruction at pages 2-4 c.f. it will be seen that the supply of women secondary grade trained teachers possessing the minimum general educational qualification prescribed in the rules is inadequate.
