To

The DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
M A D R A S.

Sir,

Mr. S.M.Peters, Secondary Grade Assistant, Board High School Hosur is ordered to retire from service on 10-11-46 forenoon on which date he attains the age of 55 Years. He requests an extension of service for a period of 2 years stating that he is physically fit for further work. The Headmaster Board High School, Hosur has recommended that the assistant may be allowed to continue. The District Educational Officer Salem has also no objection to appoint Mr.S.M.Peters after his retirement for the school year 1946-47.

With reference to your proceedings 5361 -G1-46 dated 10-9-46 I have to state that there are no applications on hand and that there are no probationers awaiting appointment. In spite of advertisements in newspapers sufficient number of applications to fill in the existing vacancies were not received and consequently several posts yet remain vacant. There is thus dearth of Secondary Grade hands for employment. I have therefore reappointed Mr.S.M.Peters as Secondary Grade assistant, Board High School, Hosur with effect from 10-11-46 in anticipation of your sanction with a view to avoid dislocation of work in the school.

I request that the re-appointment of Mr. S.M.Peters for the school year 1946-47 may be approved fixing the pay that has to be allowed to him. He is now drawing Rs.50/-Per mensem in the scale of 30-2/2-50. A copy of the order received to him is enclosed.

I request early sanction.
