Sir,

I am writing this on behalf of my clients
C.V.Ranganatha Sastri, C.V.Simharajan, V.Bhavani
Shanker, V.Suresham, Mrs. V.N.Lakshmi Srinivasa Rao and Mrs.V.S.Maragatham.

My clients are the grandchildren of Diwan Bahadur C.V.Visvanatha Sastri, Retired District and Sessions Judge who died of 30th April 1944. The said Diwan Bahadur XC.V.Visvanatha Sastri was, for a long time, connected with Sir.P.Theagaraya Chetty Hindu High School, Washermanpet, Madras. My clients are anxious to endow a Prize in the said school to perpetuate the memory of their grand-father

One 3 1/2 % non-terminable 1854-1855
Government Promissory Note bearing No. MS002311 for Rs500/- has been purchased for the purpose and stands in the name of C.V.Ranganatha Sastri. My clients are anxious to take advantage of the Charitable Endowments Act (VI of 1890) and wish to vest the property in the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments so that it may be administered as per the scheme herewith ~~and~~ enclosed.

Please let me know whether the government is prepared to accept the endowment. On hearing from you my clients will make over the Government Promissory Note in the name of the Treasurer of Charitable Endowments. The necessary applications under Sections 5 and 6 of the said Act will then be filed.

My clients are scattered over India and it will be difficult to get the signatures of all of them. My client C.V. Ranganatha Sastri will, therefore, sign for himself and on behalf of the others. I trust this will be in order. In any event my clients are particular that all their names should appear as donors & even if only Mr. C.V. Ranganatha Sastri sign:

Yours Faithfully

The D.P.G. reports that the donors are particular that the prize should be awarded in the form of immediate cash & that they are not willing to its prize being awarded in the form of National Savings Certificates or National Savings Gift cards.

2. In the present case, the offer to endow a prize was accepted before the orders in Memo no 47969-8/45-3 Edu & 29-11-45 were issued. It does not seem desirable now to refuse to meet the acc'ts offered in the Treasurer of charitable endowments & return them to the donors on the ground that they are not willing to the prize being awarded as proposed by govt. It is therefore for consideration whether the notifications on pp 1-6 ante as altered by legal may be issued.
