Deputy Secretary to Government,
Education, Madras

14 FEB 1947

You may be surprised to hear from me but I wish to place before you a matter that I have already placed before the Director of Education to no effect.

It was about two months ago that my leave was gazetted as from the 1st February 1947 for six months preparatory to retirement. I asked for the leave largely because I thought of junior persons who would be promoted, and there was ample time for an appointment to have been made, so as to take effect on the 1st February.

On the 27th January I wrote to the Dy Director(Personel) stating that orders had not yet reached me regarding my successor and that to suit the Director's convenience, I was willing to await my successor's arrival, as I wished to hand over charge to the next Inspectress personally. But my letter crossed the orders appointing Mrs S.P. Israel as Inspectress VII Circle, and informing me that I should hand over charge to the District Educational Officer, Madura. Later, I received a D.O. letter also stating the same.

I then asked the D.E.O. to await further orders, and I wrote to the Director officially and sent him a telegram stating that I was awaiting Mrs Israel's arrival. I asked the Director kindly to instruct the D.E.O. by wire. But I received a telegram "Please hand over to District Educational Officer as ordered." Accordingly, I handed over to the D.E.O. on the 1st February forenoon, and am on leave as I requested. I am glad of the leave but I do consider that in the light of much over 30 years of service, I should not have been ordered in that manner to hand over to an officer who already has his full time work to do instead of being allowed to wait for the next Inspectress. I quite understand that there may be some slight adjustment regarding a few days full leave salary later on but that could have been avoided if some one had been posted in good time to take effect on the 1st February 1947

In this way it appears to all concerned who know me, that Government are glad to be finished with the services of a senior officer, and no reason has been given to me as to why I could not await my successor's arrival. Mrs Israel is not coming, and even till to-day I have not heard of any posting. It will therefore still take a few days before the place is filled.

If necessary, I am willing to return to duty to tide over the March payments, or until another Inspectress arrives to take charge, but I am not prepared to address the Director on the subject, when he has ordered me to hand over charge as he has done.

I am writing this to you for your information. The least junior person in the service may appeal to the Minister for Education, and I consider that I may do so as well. I am not asking to return to duty but I consider that something more should be done for the Circle at present than that another full time officer should be "in charge". I cannot cease to have interest in the work until the post is filled by another Inspectress.

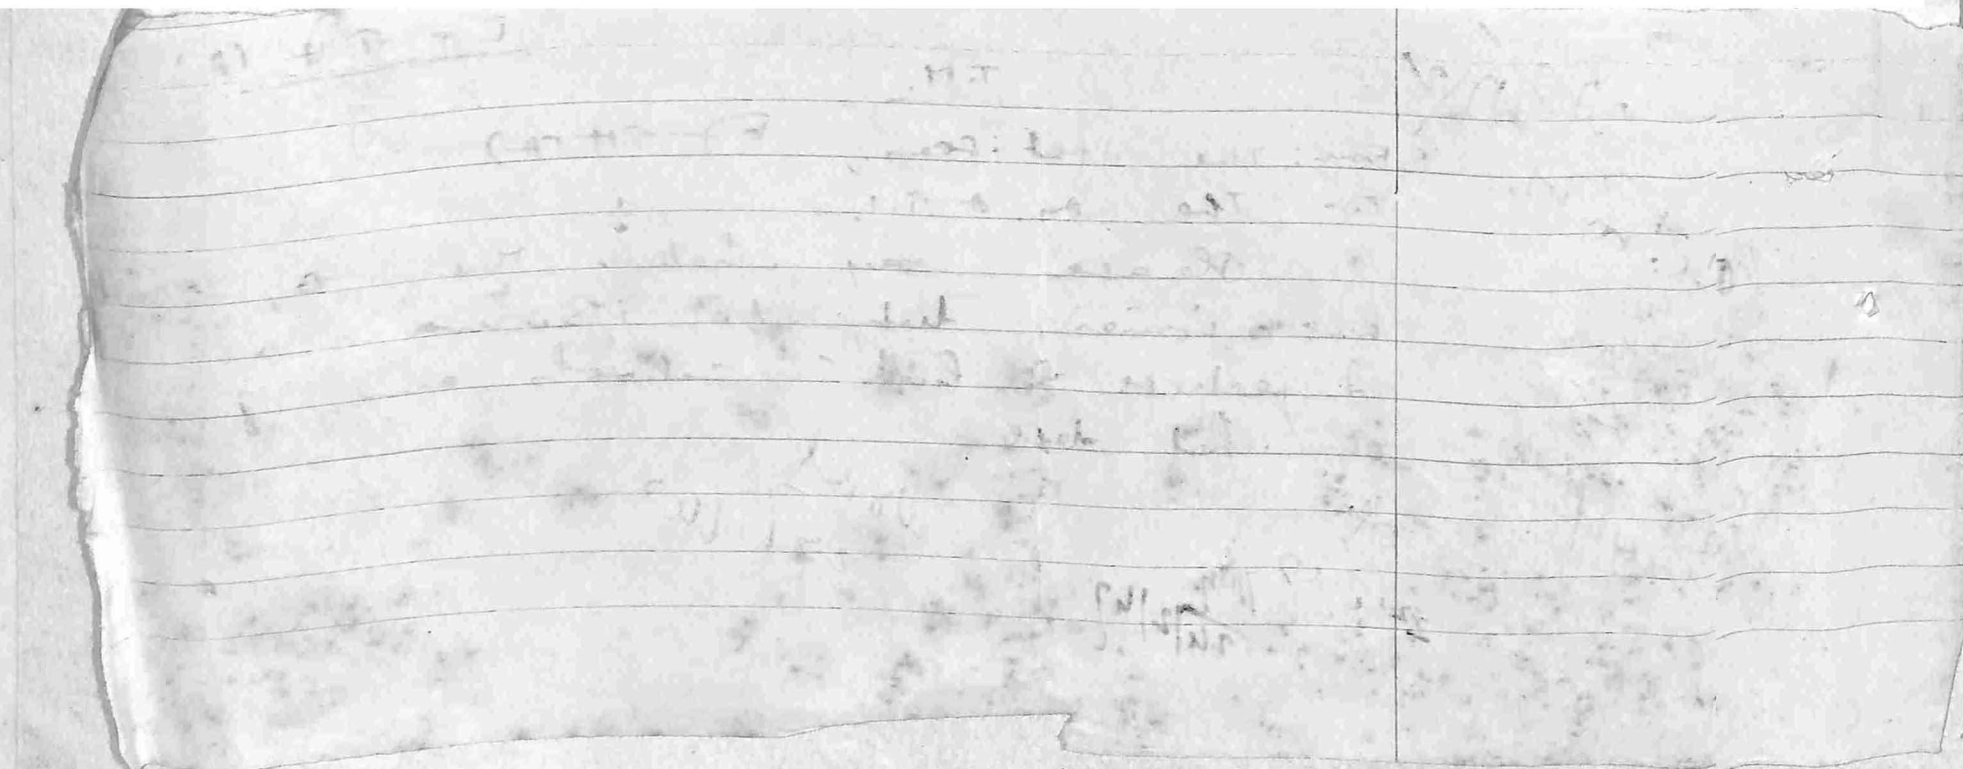

Yours sincerely,

M Blake
