G.P.F. - Late Sri M.K. Sheshagiri Rao, clerk, Office of the Dy. Inspr. of Schools, Tiruvadanai Range - Payment of amount to fresh nominees - Orders passed.

Read:- From the AG., No.Fds.I.-806, dated 12-10-46.

G.O.(MS.) No. 2419 Edn., dated 18.12.1946

The contingent notice of cancellation of ~~a nomination previously made~~ though required by rule 7(5) of the G.P.F.(Madras) Rules to be sent ^{by a subscriber} along with ~~the~~ ^{every} nomination, is to be sent in a separate form prescribed for the purpose and is not part of the ~~fresh~~ nomination itself. The Govt., therefore, consider that failure to send the notice along with the revised nomination does not invalidate the nomination. The AG. is informed that the balance of the G.P.F. amount at the credit of Sri M.K. Seshagiri Rao, late Clerk, Office of the Dy. Inspr. of Schools, Tiruvadanai Range, may be ^{two} disbursed to the persons nominated by the late subscriber in his nomination dated 30-9-44, as set down therein. In order, however, to indemnify the Govt.

against any claim in future from others, indemnity bonds, signed by two sureties, should be obtained from the persons before making the payment.

Disposal of R.P.F. amount at credit of Sri M.K. Seshagiri Rao, late clerk, Office of Dy. Insp. of Schools, Tirunelveli Range

This is a case relating to the disposal of the Provident Fund money of a deceased subscriber who, when making a fresh nomination, had not sent in a contingent notice of cancellation of the previous nomination. The A.G.'s letter in the c.f. fully sets out the case, and the Legal Dept. may be requested kindly to offer their remarks on the point raised therein.

Finance may kindly put up a copy of the amendments to the General Provident Fund Rules on which the contin-gent notice of cancellation was prescribed and offer their remarks on the A.G.'s letter.

Fin (Pen).

Copy of S.O. 651, Fin (Pen) of 25-10-41 in which the amendments referred to in Legal note above were made is submitted at flag D. Revised rule 7 of the G.P.Fund (Madras) Rules provides for furnishing the contingent notice of cancellation.

2. The case is set out in the A.G.'s letter in c.f. It seems that the fresh nomination submitted by the deceased subscriber need not be treated as invalid merely because he did not send along with it a contingent notice of cancellation.

This contingent notice is a separate form & need not be regarded as part of the nomination which is furnished in a separate prescribed form.

orm. The contingent notice is merely required in case to provide for the contingency of any of the nominees in the fresh nomination predeceasing the subscriber.

Fin may therefore advise that the prov. fund amount of Rs. 1,172 be disbursed to the nominees in the fresh nomination of 30-9-44; but as the matter is not entirely free from doubt, it may be suggested that, in order to indemnify the Govt. against any claim from others, an indemnity bond may be obtained ~~from others~~ before making payment.
3. The case may be passed on to Legal.

Rule 7 (5) of the General Provident Fund Rules requires a subscriber to send to the Account Officer a contingent notice of cancellation along with every nomination made by him. The notice, though required to be sent along with the nomination, is to be sent in a separate form prescribed for the purpose and is therefore not part of the nomination itself. The failure to send the notice along with the revised nomination does not seem to invalidate the nomination. There is no objection to the amount being disbursed to the nominees in the fresh nomination dated 30-9-1944, after taking an indemnity bond from them as suggested by Finance.

Sub:--Government Provident Fund--Final Closure-- Late Sri M.K. Seshagiri Rao, Ex-Clerk, Deputy Inspectors Office, Tiruvadanai Range.

In G.O. No. Ms. 2419 Edn. dated 18.12.46, Government ordered that the G.P.F. amount of late Sri M.K. Seshagiri Rao may be paid to Lakshmi Ammal and L. Subba Rao who have been nominated by the deceased subscriber in proportion of 2/3 of the amount to Lakshmi Ammal and 1/3 to Sri L. Subba Rao on production of an indemnity bond from each of the above persons signed by two magistrates. The 2 nominees were instructed to do so; but they sent the indemnity bond drawn on a plain paper on 15.4.47 and 3.5.47, respectively. They had been asked to execute the indemnity bonds on a stamped paper, subsequently on receipt the bond was sent to the Accountant General on 29.10.47 by registered post.

2. As it seems that the bond was misplaced, the Accountant General wanted to know the date and number of the Registered cover in which the bond was sent. He was informed on 22.3.48 that the number of the registered cover is 1611. dated 29.10.47. Again on 7.4.48 the Accountant General wanted the same information which was immediately replied. He was reminded on the subject on 12.4.48. The reply of the Accountant General is now awaited.

Ramnad at Madura to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras.

The Accountant-General, Madras had in his letter No. Pds. 4-521-49/457 dated 21-5-48 sanctioned a sum of Rs. 390-10-0 to be paid to Mr. L. Subba Rao at the Manamadura Sub-Treasury. There is no Sub-Treasury at Manamadura. So the party was requested to inform this office whether he desires to have the amount paid to him either at Sivaganga Sub-Treasury or Ramnad Treasury. Mr. L. Subba Rao wanted that the amount may be paid to him at Sivaganga Sub-Treasury. The Accountant-General, Madras has therefore been requested in this office MC.50-A/47 dated 28-6-48 to issue orders for payment of the amount at Sivaganga Sub-Treasury as there is no Sub-Treasury at Manamadura. I am now expecting his revised orders.
