Dear Mr. Cooney,

I have just now received a summons from the Additional I Class Magistrate, Ramnad to appear before him on 12th February 1946 as a Prosecution witness in a Criminal case. I shall be obliged therefore if you get immediately an advance Travelling Allowance of Rs.125/- sanctioned to me to meet the expenses connected with the journey to enable me to book my seat in time. I have to leave this place on Sunday or Monday next and probably be here by the 14th February 1946.

Yours sincerely,

Clarence O. Coorey, Esq., I.C.S., Deputy Secretary to Government, Education & Public Health Department, Fort St. George, Madras.

Under Art. 84, M. F. C. Vol. I, advance of travelling allowance is admissible for any journey for which travelling allowance is admissible as for a journey on tour.
As the S. G. P. is not the head of a department he has no power to sanction an advance to himself with reference to G. O. 1134 Fin S. 22. 10.45. There seems to be no objection
