The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Education and public Health Department, Fort St. George, Madras.

R.C.No. 112-J/45 dated 30th January 1946.

Sir,

Rules relating to the Provident Fund for teachers in Non-pensionable service--printing of.

I have the honour to state that copies of the Teachers' Provident Fund Rules for teachers in non-pensionable service were last printed in 1944 with reference to G.O.No.
94-Education dated 25.1.1944. The Superintendent, Government Press reports that all the copies placed at his disposal for stock and sale have been completely exhausted.

In G.O.No. 2100-Education and Public Health dated 11.12.1945 Government have issued a number of amendments to the Teachers' Provident Fund Rules. All these amendments are of a very important nature. It is therefore necessary that the Teachers' Provident Fund Rules should be brought upto-date. The Superintendent, Government Press states that 300 copies of the new rules are required for stock and sale as there is a constant demand for the copies from the public. It is also necessary that copies of the rules embodying all the amendments sanctioned uptodate are supplied to the subordinate officers of the Department, as copies corrected upto 21.4.1941, with reference to G.O.No. 139-Education dated 28.1.1941, were last supplied to them.
The Accountant-General, Madras ~~states~~ ^{requires} that 12 copies of the latest rules should be supplied to him. It is found that 350 copies are required for distribution to the officers of the department and to the Accountant-General, Madras.

3. In these circumstances I request that Government may be pleased to sanction the reprinting of 650 copies of the Teachers' Provident Fund Rules as corrected up-to-date and instruct the Superintendent, Government Press to supply me with 350 copies thereof keeping the remaining 300 copies for stock and sale.
