The Board invites the attention of the Government to its reference No.98-U.1/44 Dated 28-11-1944 disposed of in G.O.No.MS.1840 Education dated 7--12--1944. The Board proposes to follow the same procedure for the printing of the forms required in 1946 also, as the Superintendent, Government Press may have heavy work to get through in view of the printing of electoral rolls etc.. It is accordingly permitting the Collectors to get the required forms, printed locally, supplying the required paper from their allotment of stationery and replenishing their stocks by indents on the Superintendent of Stationery. The Board

requests

In the Circumstances stated in the letter read above, the Govt ratify the action of the Bd of Rev (C.S) in having instructed the Collectors to get Forms B & under the Procurement Scheme and Forms III, VII, and IX under the ^{in 1946} ~~infomant~~ ~~scheme~~ Scheme printed locally and insert the other forms in manuscript, supplying the required paper from their allotment of Stationery and replenishing their stocks by indent on the Vessel of Stationery.
