Re.No.1336 J/43 dated 10-1-1946.

Sir,

Sub: Teachers' Provident Fund Rules - permission for priest teachers to join the fund.

Ref: G.O.Ms.No.2100 Edn., dated 11-12-1945.

In G.O.No.2100 Edn., dated 11-12-1945, Government have been pleased to order that teachers who belong to a religious order which imposes vows of celibacy on its members may be exempted from joining the Teachers' Provident Fund scheme and in para 7 of the same G.O. Government have ordered that when teachers who belong to a religious order which imposes vows of celibacy on its members are admitted to the Teachers' Provident Fund, their accounts may be closed without giving them the benefits of Government contributions.

2. I must state in this connection that among the Catholic priests there are regular orders, such as, the Jesuits, the Salesians etc. who live as a congregation. They are treated as members of their house for life. The individuals belonging to this order take vows of poverty because they cannot hold any money of their own. As against the regular orders, there are the secular orders. The priests belonging to the secular orders do not take vows of poverty though they are priests in the same sense as those belonging to the regular orders. Both regular and secular orders take vows of celibacy and according to Government orders no catholic priest will be eligible for admission to the Teachers' Provident Fund. When a secular priest retires he has got to live on his own, either on what he may have inherited from his parents or from the little that he might have saved during his career as a priest. The secular priest can, therefore receive an individual pay or allowance while serving as a teacher. Such priests will naturally be anxious and many of them have been anxious in the past to join the Provident Fund.

3. With a view to making such priest teachers eligible to join the fund, the Government solicitor was requested to state the nature of the nomination which they have to make under the rules at the time of joining the fund. The Government Solicitor has stated that it will be enough if such teachers sign the 2nd schedule only (schedule which has to be filled in when the teacher has no family).

4. I consider that it would be inequitable to deprive poor secular priests of the chance of saving something in a Provident fund because many of them retire from service as priests and teachers without any saving at all. In the above circumstances, I request that Government may be pleased to issue necessary instructions permitting secular priest teachers of the type mentioned to join the fund and to derive the benefits thereof. Government may also be pleased to substitute the word "poverty" for the word "celibacy" in the amendment issued - vide rule 2 (b) of the Teachers' Provident Fund Rules approved in G.O.No.2100 Edn., dated 11-12-45 with a view to protecting the interests of these teachers.

for Director of Public Instruction.

reason that influenced the Govt. in not admitting the Roman Catholic priests in general to the benefits of the Teachers Provident Fund was that the funds would be likely to flow into the hands of the Religious orders and will be used for purposes other than old age expenses. The D.P.I. has now recommended that priests of the secular orders who do not take vows of poverty may be admitted into the benefits of the fund as they have got to live on their own after retirement. E.P.H. accept the D.P.I.'s recommendation. In the circumstances stated the proposal may be agreed to and the draft order accepted.
