To

J. B. Brown Esq., C.I.E., I.C.S., Adviser to H.E. the Governor of Madras, Fort St. George - MADRAS.

Respected Sir,

The petitioner was a clerk in the Government Press, Madras, whose services were dispensed with after a flawless service of nearly 14½ years under tragic circumstances without even a semblance of an enquiry, tantamount, in the opinion of the petitioner, to unfair treatment. All the attempts of the petitioner to approach through the proper channel to get redress have proved abortive. The petitioner now, seeing no other alternative, approaches the Adviser to H.E. the Governor with the hope that the Adviser will look into his case once again with the sympathy that it deserves and pass orders which would meet the ends of justice.

The petitioner begs to inform the hon'ble Adviser that the petitioner has got still six souls to support in these hard days. The hon'ble the Adviser is very aware of the whole case which was misrepresented at that time by the Publication Assistant due to some spite. In the year 1915 the petitioner applied to the Superintendent, Government Press for general permission to seek employment elsewhere since he was in the grade of Rs.40-40-1½-55. The general permission was granted accordingly. After several attempts at various government offices the petitioner finally succeeded in the Accountant-General's Office where his late brother was working and the latter died suddenly in 1919. The then Accountant-General, Mr. Woolham, was pleased to give the petitioner a post in his brother's vacancy. The petitioner was asked to join in 1923. To his misfortune, the Publications

Assistant got scent of this and concocted a case against the petitioner in February 1924 and got him dismissed from 1st December 1924.

Under the above tragic circumstances I pray that the Adviser will at least be gracious enough to grant a small pension of Rs.9/12/- permissible under Article 353 of C.S.R. at least from now to meet the heavy expenses of his big family

The petitioner is nearly 60 years old and is passing through anxious and difficult times since his unexpected and unfair dismissal. He therefore prays that some consideration might be given to his prayer.

I have the honour to be
Respected Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

A. V. Gopalachari

2. It is submitted that under Article 353 of the C.S.A he is not entitled to any pension. Under that Article he may be granted, if his case is considered by Govt as one deserving special consideration, a Compassion allowance not exceeding 2/3 of the pension which would have been admissible to him if he had retired on medical certificate. His request for the grant of pension was refused more than once. His memorial to H.E. the Governor, submitted in April 1944 for the grant of pension was also rejected in Go. no 703 Bdu d 5.5.44.
For advice whether the present petition also may be rejected. The file may be circulated to A4 with reference to his memorials on p 1 CF.
