Sir,

War - Evacuee University Students - Grant of Financial assistance.

The applicant T.P.Nadarajan is an evacuee student from Burma. He is the son of Mr.T.P.Velu who was the Chief clerk, District Traffic Superintendent's office, Burma Railways, Rangoon on a salary of Rs.200/- per mensem. He retired prior to evacuation and received Rs.11000/- towards provident Fund and Rs.3000/- towards gratuity from Burma Railways. He alleges that he spent a part of this sum on his daughter's wedding and has purchased a house in Madras for Rs.4,500/- He alleges that he expended all the money he had in supporting himself, his wife and three children. His eldest son is now employed ~~on~~ on a salary of Rs.60/- per mensem, and his third son is studying in VI form in St.Paul's high School Madras.

Mr.Velu is not receiving any financial assistance for himself or his family at present. It is requested that Financial assistance for University education for T.P.Nadarajan may be sympathetically considered, for although Mr.Velu drew Rs.14000/- from Burma Railways he has supported himself and his family for the past three years and got one of his daughters settled down in life. Mr Velu is not employed.
