Enclosures: No. 24/SBC. dated 30th January 1946.

Sir,

Sub:- Pay - Special - Typewriting - Admissibility on promotion as upper division clerk - orders requested -

I have the honour to state that Sri R. Natesan, a typist of this office on Rs 40-65/65 in receipt of the typewriting special pay of Rs 10/- sanctioned in G.O. No. Ms. 540, Finance dated 2nd August 1927 is being allowed to draw the special pay after his transfer to clerical post to suit the administrative convenience with reference to the orders contained in G.O. No. 126, Public (Services) dated 24th January 1938 read with Memo No. 17032 F-6, Education & Public Health Department dated 24th August 1938 as he continues to be engaged in typewriting work and as the sanctioned number of special pays is not exceeded. The transfer of the typist to the post of an upper division clerk on Rs 55-70 was from 1st October 1943 but without any officiating allowance till 1st August 1944 from which date his pay was fixed in the next higher stage with the presidency allowance of Rs 6-8-0 as under G.O. No. 2687, Public (Services) dated 11th September 1944 officiating promotion was declared admissible between the post of lower division clerk and upper division clerk on Rs 55-70.

2. On the Accountant-General raising an objection to the payment of the special pay of Rs 10/- from 1st August 1944 for the reason that he on promotion as acting upper division clerk has drawn pay in the scale of pay of Rs 55-70 with a presidency allowance of Rs 6-8-0, the position was fully explained to him in this office letter No. 24/SBC dated 23rd November 1945 (copy enclosed) but he requires the sanction of Government for its drawal (vide copy of his letter No. T-2-B/S&P-522 dated 10th December 1945 enclosed).

3. As Sri R. Natesan is actually engaged in typewriting matters of confidential nature and the object with which this special pay was fixed for an office as a whole will be frustrated, I request that Government will be pleased to authorize the Accountant-General to admit the drawal of special pay of Rs 10/- in the case of Sri R. Natesan from 1st August 1944.

Superintendent.

Copy to the Accountant-General, Madras with reference to the correspondence resting with his letter No. T-2-B/S & P-602 dated 24th January 1946.

 Superintendent.

ENCLOSURES.

Copy of letter No. 24/SBC dated 23-11-45 from the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras to the Accountant-General, Madras.

Sub:- Admissibility of typewriting special pay of Rs 10/- p.m. to Sri R. Natesan, typist of this office, after his promotion as upper division clerk.
Ref:- Your letter No. T-2-B/S&P-428 dated 20-10-45.

The sanction of a duty allowance of Rs 10/- per mensem to the ministerial staff possessing the qualification of advanced test in typewriting actually engaged in typewriting whether in addition to clerical duties or not with reference to G.O. No. 1054, Finance dated 20-10-21 was withdrawn in G.O. Nos. 130, Public dated 15-2-28 read with 519, Misc., Public dated 3rd May 1929 in respect of all new entrants except in the case of candidates selected by the Staff Selection Board prior to the issue of the 1st G.O. and the above special pay of Rs 10/- treated as personal to the individuals concerned so long as they continued to hold the posts to which the special pay was attached.

2. Orders contained in G.O. No. 126, Public (Services) dated 24th January 1938 were as a result of a representation made in regard to the difficulties experienced in the enforcement of the conditions underlined above and for the transfer of the special pay to posts to which the drawee of the special pay as personal pay may be transferred as will be evident from the Government Memo No. 1590-1, Public (Services) dated 3rd March 1937 (copy enclosed).

3. Under the above order special pays admissible were fixed for each office as a whole and it was declared they were no longer attached to particular posts. For a clarification of the above order so far as it is applicable to Sri R. Natesan a reference was made to Government in this office letter No. 24/SBC dated 12th April 1938 (copy enclosed) for the reason that he may be transferred to any other clerical post but at the same time may have to be engaged in confidential typewriting work to which Government replied in the affirmative in Education & Public Health Memorandum No. 17032 F-6 dated 24th August 1938.

4. Under these circumstances please let me know if you still press the matter for obtaining a decision of Government.

II.

Copy of letter No. T-2-B/S&P-522 dated 10-12-45 from the Accountant-General, Madras to the Superintendent, Government Press, Madras.

Ref:- Your letter No. 24/SBC dated 23-11-45 regarding admissibility of typewriting special pay to Sri R. Natesan even after his promotion as upper division clerk from 1-8-44.

The general orders on the subject and Education & Public Health Memo dated 24th August 1938 afford protection to Sri R. Natesan on his transfer to any other clerical post and not when he is promoted. The special pay has also been ordered not to be absorbed in future increments only and not higher pay fixed on promotion. The sanction of Government is therefore necessary for the drawal of typewriting special pay of Rs 10/- per mensem to Sri R. Natesan after his promotion as upper division clerk from 1st August 1944 and the same may please be obtained at an early date.

C. no. 6483 P/46 From the S.G.P. no 24/SBC d 30.1.46
Gout Press. Sri R. Natesan - Special pay - Typewriting - Admissibility on promotion as u.d. clerk

Please see the S.G.P.'s letter on p. 10.

It is seen from that letter that Sri R. Natesan, a typist in the Gout Press who was drawing a pay of Rs 65 + Rs 10 (special pay for typewriting in the scale of Rs 40-65) was promoted on 1.10.43 as an u.d. clerk in the Gout Press on a scale of pay of Rs 55-70 without any official allowance till 1.8.44 from which date his pay was fixed in the next higher stage, (presumably at Rs 60), with the Presidency Allowance of Rs 6.8.0 and a special pay of Rs 10 per annum.

2. The S.G.P. now brings to the notice of the Govt that the A.G. objects to the drawing by Sri Natesan the special pay of Rs 10 on his promotion as u.d. clerk for the reasons set out at 'X' on p. 2 of the S.G.P. also states that Sri R. Natesan is actually engaged in type writing matters of Confidential nature and his promotion to the post of u.d. clerk was made only to suit the administrative convenience. He is therefore requests that the A.G. may be authorized to admit the drawing of Rs 10/- in the case of Sri R. Natesan.

Contained in the Govt Memo no. 17032 F-6
Dated 24.8.38, the amount paid to him as special pay from 1.8.44 need not be recovered.

2. Under F.R. 9 (23) read with F.R. 37, a personal pay is granted to a Govt. servant to save him from loss of substantive pay in respect of a permanent post due to revision of pay or to any reduction of such substantive pay otherwise than as a disciplinary measure. Accordingly a L.D. clerk in receipt of a shorthand special pay of Rs 25 p.m. or a typewriting special pay of Rs 10 p.m. when promoted as a U.D. clerk will draw only the loss in emoluments in his substantive pay by such promotion, as personal pay - see G.O. 89 P.H. dated 9-1-46 and page 3 N.F. of G.O. 1102 P.H. dated 18-5-43.

In the present case, Sri R. Natesan was drawing a pay of Rs 65^{p.m} in the scale of Rs 40-65 plus Rs 10 as special pay for typewriting. On his promotion as U.D. clerk on Rs 55-5/2-70, his pay as U.D. clerk should have been fixed at Rs 70 p.m. under F.R. 22^(a)(1) and he would also be eligible for a Presidency allowance of Rs 6-8-0 p.m. Thus the total emoluments of Sri R. Natesan by his promotion to U.D. will be Rs 76-8-0 p.m. as against Rs 75 p.m. he was drawing as L.D. clerk. Since there is practically no loss in his emoluments, it does not seem necessary to grant him any personal pay. At any rate there is no case for granting him a special pay of Rs 10 p.m. for the typewriting on the ground that he attends to this work even as an U.D. clerk, as U.D. clerks are not expected to attend to typewriting work in addition to their duties.

In view of the fact that he has been doing typing work in addition to his duties as VD Clerk and of the orders contained in the GO. at Pz 2 the amount paid to him as spl pay for 1/8 year
