SUB: PANTOMIME "ALADDIN".

1. The Superintendent of the Museum Theatre has pointed out that this HQ failed to obtain your written sanction for our free use of the Theatre from 17 - 20 JAN 46.

2. This was given verbally personally by the Dy Secy to Govt in an interview with S.C. W.G. this HQ.

3. May it, therefore, now please be confirmed in writing to all concerned.

In another file, this dept. suggested that the usual charges viz. 6 3/- for rent plus actual electric charges should be levied for rehearsals and that the concession of charging half rate for military should be withdrawn in respect of rehearsals for the future.

In the present case, the theatre was used for rehearsals in January 1946. The proposal to grant exemption from payment of electric charges and rent may perhaps
