Collector North Arcot, Vellore.

To

The Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, MADARAS.

Sir,

Emigration- War- Evacuee - Student - College and University education-
Financial assistance- Application of N. Ganesan.

N. Ganesan, an evacuee from Burma who is studying in the Junior Intermediate class in the Voorhees College, Vellore has applied to me for financial assistance to meet his college expenses.

2. The applicant's father, V.R. Varam Madalier, a retired cashier of the Imperial Bank of India, Mandalay is being paid a monthly allowance of Rs.78/-P.M. to supplement his small monthly pension of Rs.31-13-6.

Enquiry shows that his father finds it difficult to finance his son to continue his studies in the college with the monthly allowance besides maintaining his family consisting of 5 adult members.

3. The ~~minimum~~ expenditure (College and special fees) for the year 1945-46 comes to Rs128/- as furnished by the Principal of the College.
The total cost of books and note-books actually purchased by the student works out to Rs.22-2-0. I recommend that a sum of Rs150/- (One hundred and fifty only) may be sanctioned for the academic year 1945-46 for the education of the student N. Ganesan.

The application and the connected records are enclosed.
